Tries to Use Knife.

At 6.30 p.m. yesterday officers Furlong and O'Neill were summoned to A. Goodridge & Sons' premises, it having been reported that Capt. Matthews of the schr. Empress was dangerously cut by a knife used on him by a sailor on the schr. General Laurie, also laying at Goodridge's. Capt. Matthews visited the Laurie to see her captain, with whom he is on very familiar terms. A seaman named Williams of the Laurie was frenzied with liquor and attacked Capt. Matthews. He placed his arm around the captain's neck, drew his head down and attempted, it is alleged, to stab him with an ordinary clasp knife. The captain received a cut on the head, but it was only skin deep. The seamen about separated the men, and one of them disarming the frenzied sailor threw the knife overboard. The captain's face was also cut where the button of the man's coat, while he had the captain's head pressed under his arm, took effect. Williams was arrested and promptly placed in jail.

Acts Directly on Bad Kidneys.

A few doses clean and regulate the kidney ending backache. If you take several doses of Pape's Diuretic, all backache, indigestion, trouble from out-of-order kidneys or bladder trouble will vanish, and you will feel fine.

Lame back, painful stitches, rheumatism, nervous headache, dizziness, irritability, sleeplessness, inflamed or swollen eyelids, worn-out, sick feeling and other symptoms of sluggish, inactive kidneys disappear.

Uncontrollable smarting, frequent urination (especially at night) and all bladder misery ends. Feeling miserable and worried is needless, because this unusual preparation goes at once to the disordered kidneys, bladder and urinary system and distributes its healing, cleansing and vitalizing influence directly upon the organs and glands affected, and completes the cure before you realize it.

The moment you suspect any kidney or urinary disorder or feel rheumatism pains, begin taking this harmless medicine, with the knowledge there is no other remedy at any other price, made anywhere else in the world, which will effect so thorough a cure as a fifty-cent treatment of Pape's Diuretic, which any druggist can supply.

Your physician, pharmacist, banker or any mercantile agency will tell you that Pape, Thompson & Pape, of Cincinnati, is a large and responsible medicine concern, thoroughly worthy of your confidence. Only curative results can come from taking Pape's Diuretic, and a few days' treatment means clean, active, healthy kidneys, bladder and urinary organs—and no backache.

An Appreciation.

Jackman in which he warmly eulogized the work of the police in bringing to justice those who had broken into his store and stolen money and goods therefrom. Enclosed was a substantial sum as a reward to the men who had so successfully prosecuted the case, Segts. Byrne and Noseworthy.

Aurora, on morning of sailing, found on roll call, Thomas Russell, of Bonavista, missing. He made search among the other ships but failed to find him. Last seen at 11 p.m. on the 11th inst. on the Neptune; fears entertained for safety."

Mayor Gibbs Lectures on City Life.

His Honor Mayor Gibbs delivered a well prepared lecture at the British Hall last night. He dealt with civic problems in general as well as those of St. John's, and emphasized the fact throughout his whole dissertation that the manner in which a city was governed and its affairs administered always indicated the character and culture of its people. After alluding to the attractions and the hardships of city life, the successes and the struggles, the Mayor led up to the housing problem. This question had been much discussed of late in other countries as well as our own. A great deal depended on having good houses for the working-men. Unsanitary surroundings and domestic overcrowding bring on squalor and despondency which are the forerunners of intemperance and despair. Then follows eviction and the status of the hardened criminal. Not only does the man himself suffer but his family also, and hence we have the slum child, the waif and the jail bird. Those conditions must be ameliorated by the interference of the State, and men and women must be made to feel the dignity of citizenship and to appreciate their responsibilities. The mind must be directed into purer channels. Germany was forging ahead among the nations chiefly on account of the policy of elevating the common people to a higher state of culture by providing them with parks, baths, concerts and lectures free, and proper sanitation. England would have to do more for the poor in the cities in order to have a sound super-structure to rely upon in time of national emergency. The time was come when no community could afford to neglect this problem of improving the conditions in city life, especially the lot of the workingman. Cities that have been in the van of such work and profiting by the results materially as well as socially. The juvenile criminal is sent to a farm for correction and is not dragged further down by the stigma of the prison life. The adult also is treated humanely; what is good in him, little though it be, is appealed to and in many cases he leads afterwards a new life. In order to bring about civic reform the people must be willing to pay the price as it cannot be done without money. The sooner that the people realized this the quicker would we have a town worth living in. The city should be made beautiful and attractive in its streets, houses, parks and trees and have perfect sanitation. The Mayor quoted statistics showing how death rates had been suddenly reduced in cities where such improvements had taken place, and where also the criminal records were lessened in a marked degree.

At the conclusion Vice-President McCoubrey proposed a vote of thanks seconded by Mr. A. H. Martin, and being put to the audience by President Goodland was carried by acclamation.

Archbishop Howley Will Reply to Mr. Gosling.

Editor Evening Telegram. Mr. Editor.—It is my intention, when I can get a moment to spare, to attempt to reply to Mr. Gosling's very interesting and specious article in which he tries to wrest from St. John's the long cherished tradition of being the in Newfoundland. At present I would ask you to give place to the following extract from a recent Bristol paper on the subject of the coming celebration of John Guy's Settlement.

"In 1582 authorized Sir Thomas

"Hampshire who went out in charge of an expedition to make a new rule that whatever space of fore-shore a ship's master selected he could retain it so long as he kept up his buildings on it and employed it for the use of his fisheries. This saved many disputes and hastened the permanent occupation of the country. St. John's (sic) was then a place of considerable importance. This was twenty-eight years before Guy's settlement, and it seems clearly to show that St. John's had been a permanent settlement long before that."

GOOD TROUT FISHING.—Several men arrived here by last night's train with good catches of trout from ponds near Briggs Junction and Maher's. They say it is now risky to go on the ponds and lakes, and it will be absolutely dangerous to do so in a day or so if the present mild spurt continues.

Musical Criticism.

Editor Evening Telegram. Dear Sir.—I am thoroughly in accord with "Cherubino" about the way in which our concerts are reported, and it is indeed refreshing to read his criticism in this morning's News.

It must be gratifying to the promoters of the Guards' Concert that it should receive such an intelligent criticism, and while the Band may fall in some ways to come up to a certain standard, yet "Cherubino's" admonitions will do them no harm.

In explanation of the "make-up" of the Band, it must be remembered that primarily the Band is for Brigade purposes and necessarily for street work must have a good brass combination.

Of late years the custom of appearing on concert platforms has come, and this has shown the NEED of REEDS, and this addition necessitates new men and new instruments, neither of which can be obtained in a moment, and so must be a gradual development.

It will be seen, therefore, that the instrumentation at present is not of choice but of necessity.

I do not think the euphonium player was responsible for the part which "Cherubino" complains of in the "Hallelujah Chorus." Altogether the criticism is extremely good, and I am only sorry that "Cherubino" does not write more often.

St. Andrew's Debate.

Six different subjects were debated by St. Andrew's Literary Association last night, namely, "Which is the greater curse to man—War or Drunkenness?" "Should railroads get Government subsidies?" "Should skilled laborers be paid a higher rate of wages than professional men?" "Is life insurance a benefit?" "Should we encourage the formation of Trade Unions?" and "Is Newfoundland ready for State Education?" Some excellent speeches were delivered on all the subjects, especially by Messrs. McDougall, Harvey, G. C. Fearn, Chas. Brown, W. Barker, W. Rodger, Capt. Linklater, E. Crawford, Rev. Mr. Coffin and H. E. Cowan.

The Drama.

The Shaughran, Black Flag, Two Orphans, The Old Homestead, Joan of Arc, Sea of Ice, Inchavogue, Kerry Gow, Celebrated Case and numbers of other standard plays have been successfully presented by Manager White to the St. John's theatre goers, and under his management the Peep-o'-Day will be staged in the T. A. Hall on St. Patrick's night by the Old Favorites. As this famous drama is well known and has always been well received, it will no doubt draw a bumper house. The tickets are selling rapidly, so don't be too late in securing yours and avoiding regrets.

The policeman and Wreck Commissioner on learning of the theft halted the captain before Magistrate Square, and the evidence being indisputable he was fined $20, which he paid.
