Special to The Evening Telegram.
BOTWOOD, Jan. 4.
The S. S. Tritonia, Captain Murray, arrived this evening, 14 days from Glasgow.

BERLIN, Jan. 5.
Field Marshal Count Alfred von Schlieffen, formerly chief of the General Staff of the German Army, died to-day, in his eightieth year.

PEKIN, Jan. 5.
The Chinese customs revenues for 1912 amounted to $40,280,000. This is a much larger return than in 1911, which was the best previous record.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 5.
A wind, which attained a velocity of 66 miles an hour, caused heavy damages throughout Pennsylvania, Delaware and New Jersey yesterday. Buildings, trees and telegraph poles were blown down.

LONDON, Jan. 5.
Miss Estelle W. Stead, daughter of William T. Stead, who was lost with the Titanic, declares that she has received many spirit messages from her father within the last few weeks. My father tells me, Miss Stead said to-day, that he is working where he now is just as he always worked here for world peace. Being untrammelled by a physical body, and at liberty to go here and there as he wills, he is working for peace by the influence of impression. "There is heavy work in front. Do not imagine the Turk has left Europe yet" was his last message, she said.

CHRISTIANA, Norway, Jan. 5.
Capt. Johansen, a famous Arctic explorer, who achieved much success in Polar research, committed suicide here to-day. He was a member of the Amundsen's Antarctic expedition, but was left at the base of supplies, when Amundsen and four companions pushed their way to the South Pole. The fact that he was not among the party preyed on his mind. Johansen was best known as being Nansen's sole companion during fourteen months' journey over desert ice on the Greenland coast, after leaving the Arctic steamer Fram, in 1895. He was the author of "Nansen and I, at 88 degrees 14 minutes."

LONDON, Jan. 5.
The morning papers are heartily pleased with President Taft's declaration of his intention to submit the Panama Canal controversy with Britain to arbitration, if diplomatic negotiations should fail. The Daily Mail says any other than the honourable course which President Taft has taken would have been almost unthinkable; and if the Senate follows Taft's lead the question is as good as settled. The Standard regards Taft's declaration as a most welcome New Year's message to Britain and the world. The Telegraph regards Taft's speech as altogether worthy of a statesman and a friend of peace. The Standard also eulogizes Taft and pay a tribute to the stand taken by part of the American press in the matter.

Minard's Liniment Co., Limited.
Gentlemen,—I have used MINARD'S LINIMENT from time to time for the past twenty years. It was recommended to me by a prominent physician of Montreal, who called it the "great Nova Scotia Liniment." It does the doctor's work; it is particularly good in cases of Rheumatism and Sprains.
Yours truly,

New Sunday school

This school was opened yesterday by the Minister of the Kirk, the Rev. J. S. Sutherland. There was a large gathering of children and parents residing in the West End of the city, and the school promises to be very beneficial for the younger children connected with St. Andrew's resident in that locality who are unable to attend the main school in the hall adjoining the Kirk during the stormy weather. After a few encouraging remarks by the Minister the various officers and teachers were elected. Mr. A. Templeton is Superintendent and under his guidance the West End S. S. should be a leading force. The managing committee of ladies who inaugurated the movement are to be congratulated on their good work and also in obtaining such suitable rooms for the classes at 38 Power Street. The school should certainly supply a long felt want for the Presbyterian children and their friends in the West End.

Cold Comfort.

Oh, Woodrow, your future is dark! Of comfort I don't see a spark; for every old skate will be telling you straight just how you should govern your ark. They'll tell you to steer to the right, and you'll run on the rocks in the night; and the mermaid will wait as she kicks up her tail, at seeing so sorry a plight. They'll tell you to steer to the left, and you'll feel all the fury and heft of the tempest and gale on your mast and your sail, and the midnight will find you bereft. They'll tell you to tack and to slew, with your binnacle main-garnet clew, and to yaw and belay in the mariner's way, and damn you whatever you do. Your ship will have too many mates, sea lawyers and eloquent skates; and the husky A. B.'s will do just as they please till the boat is in desperate straits. You're gentle and honest and kind, possesser of a studious mind; oh, what can you do with a hell-roaring crew, intent on the bacon and rind? The man who'd conduct such a ship, and give it a prosperous trip, should have by his helm a club of red elm and likewise a shotgun and whip. He should be as quick as a cat, to fight at the drop of the hat, with a thick, heavy pelt and a knife in his belt and a buzz-saw concealed in his hat.
