They had eight or nine months to show up what the News calls a "flagrant and gross imposture." Representatives of the thousands of men who had signed the had been guiled. They had eight or nine months to show up what the News calls a "flagrant and gross imposture." Representatives of the thousands of men who had signed the petitions met in Bonavista last December. Did they charge the President of the F.P.U. with deceiving them? No. Did they declare the petitions "gross and flagrant impostures?" No. Did they direct any resentment against the draftsman of the petitions? No. Resentment was shown, but it was directed against Sir Edward Morris and his Government.

Appended is a copy of the Resolutions passed on December 14th, 1912, by the Supreme Council of the F.P.U. in session at Bonavista. This was about nine months after the attack on the petitions by Sir Edward Morris:

WHEREAS PETITIONS from many Local Councils of the Flshermen's Protective Union, the contents and form of which have received the sanction of this Supreme Council were Labrador Fishery News.

To-day in an interview with Capt. Parsons, of the Kyle, a Telegram reporter gleaned from him that the codfish are striking in on the coast just as the ship was leaving. From Long Island to Spear Harbor boats secured 5, 10, 15 and 20 qtls. in the first little spurt, and though it appears a little late, Capt. Parsons is optimistic. Same very warm days were recently experienced on the coast. From Domino South, icebergs are very numerous and are a danger to navigation. The Straits fleet were met Thursday last and reported very little doing with fish in that locality.
