

You Can't Afford to Have Wet Feet

YOU know how important it is to keep your feet warm and dry. Then why don't you wear "Hi-Press" Rubber Boots and Shoes?

They're made a new way—IN ONE SOLID PIECE—they simply CAN'T leak or peel. But the big thing you notice from this new way of making footwear is the added WEAR,—Fishermen everywhere tell us that "Hi-Press" outlasts ordinary boots two and three to one.

You know, in your class of work, that the best is always the most economical. Wear "Hi-Press"—and you will never be satisfied with anything else.

Whenever you buy an article of rubber see that it bears this trade-mark. The wreath and the "G" is the sign of Quality and assurance that the House of Goodrich stands solidly behind its products.

Grand Falls Reception to R. S. M. Mackay.

R.S.M. MacKay, on his way across country, spent a couple of days at Grand Falls to view the paper making plant and to meet some of his old friends and pupils. Two days were all too short in which to take in the immense plant and surroundings. However, all that could be done was done to make his stay as pleasant as possible. When the express pulled into the station the pleasant strains of the Salvation Army band were the first sounds to greet his ear to be succeeded by the wholesouled welcome of the large gathering present.

Monday was occupied in going round the plant and surroundings, which were a great surprise to him as he had no idea of such a large and self-contained manufacturing centre in this thinly populated country.

On Tuesday a visit was paid to the farm at Rushy Pond and some little time was spent in an effort to lure the finny denizens of the neighboring waters.

In the evening the Officers, Warrant Officers and Sergeants of the Regt.

and Forestry Coy's were invited to meet him at the Log Cabin where all were right royally entertained by Mr. Scott and the Reception Committee. During the evening several eloquent and pertinent speeches were made. Manager Scott, in proposing the health of the guest referred to the splendid service rendered to the Regt. by the Sergeant Major. Grand Falls bore eloquent testimony to his labours as witnessed by the large proportion of Commissioned and Non Commissioned Officers it had produced from the number sent forward.

The Sergeant Major in reply very feelingly spoke of the great welcome and kindness he had received since coming to the country. His labours for the Regt. had been those of love, for he had always found the men very keen regarding their work and had always received whole-hearted support from his N.C.O's. He trusted that the lessons learnt abroad would not be lost to the country, but that training of some sort would still continue. He particularly referred to the necessity of some sort of physical training for the youth of the country which would instill into them, habits of discipline and cleanliness, a respect for authority and a recognition of that fellowship without which no community could be at its best. Amongst the young officers and N.C.O's who had returned, there was plenty of material for instructors and he felt sure Grand Falls could furnish a Boys' Brigade which would be a credit to any country.

These sentiments were endorsed by several of those present, and it seems as if a movement in this direction will take place immediately. Reference was also made to the work of the Patriotic Association, and particularly to that of the Women's Branch. In the morning some of the officers accompanied the Sgt. Major along the road and pointed out to him the various places of interest and the method of conveying the logs down the river as far as could be observed from the train. During the afternoon the following message was received from Humbermouth.

Mr. Scott, Grand Falls.
Before leaving Newfoundland I would like to thank you and your staff and all friends at Grand Falls for their splendid reception—and the kind hospitality given to me, which I assure you will never be forgotten. With best wishes to you all.
MACKAY.

It is unnecessary to emphasize the fact that he was well looked after by Mrs. MacPherson of the Staff House. Good luck MacKay. Of all with whom the Regiment were associated on the other side, none deserves greater credit than yourself. In spite of many adverse circumstances, you turned out a body of men, who if not regulars, were at the least not to be despised. And we trust that if ever it be the lot of any of Ours to undergo the same fortune that they will have the same confidence in the result when they hear the order, "Carry on Sergeant Major."

Celebration Suggestions.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir.—With your kind permission, I beg to make a few remarks in your esteemed journal in regard to the Peace Celebrations. It having been officially announced that there are to be national celebrations and rejoicings, I am of opinion that the proper way to enter upon such, would be to have them the first week in August. (The official instructions have already arranged for this date. Ed. By having two holidays the Regatta could be one and any other form of appropriate ceremonial, either religious or national, or both, on the other. The authorities could also arrange to have a couple of warships in port, whose crews might take part in the Regatta by rowing a service race, in which they could enter against the men of our Regiment or Naval Reserve. Military parades are all right in war time, but now we want to forget wars pomp as well as war's honors. Therefore the best way to my mind is that which I have suggested.

The working men desire some celebration in which they all can participate, and as Regatta Day is the workingman's day, the only day in the year when he is on an equal footing with his employer, the proper time for the holding of our sports day is in conjunction with the Peace Celebrations. Employers could not object to letting their employees enjoy themselves on such a momentous occasion, but the spirit of concord would be greatly fostered if no deduction of pay were made on these days.

Hoping that these humble suggestions of mine may receive due consideration, and with apologies for trespassing so much on your valuable space, I remain, Sir,

Yours truly,
"A WAR SUFFERER."
