she was unable to keep order and was inefficient as a teacher. Trustee Greenlees said he had suggested the change recommended by the inspector. Mr. Baker had overstepped himself so far as to write Miss Monroe, suggesting to her the advisability of resigning.

Mr. Bayly's motion that Miss Monroe be transferred to Maple avenue school in accordance with the inspector's report, carried. Mr. Baker said he wanted the board to appoint a committee to investigate.

It was decided to let the matter Mr. Keenleyside moved that Miss Coyne be placed as assistant principal to Mr. Baker, and receive her present salary. Action was deferred. HIGH SCHOOL HEATING.

Mr. Merchant reported marked improvement since Mr. McDonald took charge of the heating, two months ago, but it was not satisfactory during the cold weather of last week. He also submitted records of the temperature of the different rooms on

Then followed a volley of questions from various trustees about whether McDonald kept the fires going all night, or burnt out the lining of two of the furnaces, or used more coal,

Mr. Merchant said he believed the fires were kept up all night. The linings of two of the furnaces had been fixed since McDonald came, but he claimed they were warped when he came. Mr. Merchant did not know.

He did not weigh out the coal. The Chairman-It is not a matter of coal, but of heating the school. Messrs. McDonald and Jury were each given a hearing. The former explained how he banked up the fires at night, and claimed that he had given satisfaction. His experience had been hardly earned, and although another man might run the furnaces, by profiting by his experience, he thought it only justice that he should remain in the position.

Mr. Jury stated his side of the case He had been working closely to the Smead-Dowd directions; was careful of the furnaces, but did not run fires Dr. Teasdall-Has the heating been

About three years ago my husband was very ill, and I had frequently occasion to rise in the night and go for a doctor or to the druggist. In my hurry I often neglected to properly clothe myself, and contracted several heavy colds, which turned at last to chronic catarrh. I tried doctors, who helped me, but did not cure me, and several special catarrh medicines. I was relieved but not cured. I was suffering intolerably when Mr. Shuff recommended me to try CHASE'S CATARRH CURE, and it began at once to help, and in about two months had entirely cured me. I cannot speak too highly of this remarkable medicine, and cheerfully recommend it to all sufferers from catarrh." The blower included is a great help to sufferers.
