BRITISH BUSY BUILDING SHIPS

More Vessels Turned Out Last Year Than Ever.

AN ULTIMATUM FOR TURKEY

Severe Earthquake Shock at Salonica—Czar Gracious to Chailu—The Wild Birds of London.

London, July 7.—The official annual statement of British shipping, just issued, shows that more ships were built in Great Britain and more sold to foreigners in the year 1901 than in any other previous year, and the total tonnage of British merchant shipping was 9,224,490 tons, or 130,000 tons above the total of 1900.

HISTORIC LEGAL CASE.

One of the last of the long list of historic cases heard at the Old Bailey, the famous criminal court which is rapidly being demolished, is that of Charles Bright, the civil engineer of Sandusky, O., who is on trial charged with concealing $500,000 of his estate in connection with bankruptcy proceedings. All through the past week a formidable array of counsel and witnesses from the United States and America have been engaged in one of the few court rooms not yet invaded by the destroyers to hear the evidence in this long drawn out case. It is expected to go to the jury July 10. Bright's counsel commenced his client's defense July 3 by submitting voluminous documents and accounts to prove his client's financial transactions were legal.

ULTIMATUM TO TURKEY.

It is reported that France has threatened to send an ultimatum to Turkey because the Porte has refused to apologize for the action of Turkish policemen at Smyrna in boarding a French ship to arrest a Turkish spy who had taken refuge on board the vessel.

EARTHQUAKE AT SALONICA.

A earthquake shock was felt at Salonica, European Turkey, yesterday afternoon. According to this dispatch many houses were wrecked and there was much loss of life. Particulars of the disaster have not yet been received.

REDMOND'S COUNSEL.

Addressing a meeting of the United Irish League at Limerick on Saturday, John Redmond, chairman of the league, called on the Irish to unite by one great effort. Coercion, he said, should meet coercion, and the land schemes of Mr. Wyndham, the Chief Secretary for Ireland, who was one of the worst representatives of English rule ever sent to Ireland, should be defeated. It rested with the Irish to win their liberty.

BIRDS IN LONDON.

A coronation visitor (for they are coronation visitors despite the postponement of the big show), Joseph Tansfield, who perhaps knows as much about bird life in Mexico as anyone, has been hunting the open spaces of London since his arrival.

"All the world knows that London contains more men, women and children than any other city, but I think she can claim more than this," Mr. Tansfield remarked yesterday. "She surely is the very metropolis of birds. I am astonished."

"A beautiful feature of the wild birds of London, too, is that they remain wild and do not make themselves over familiar. Were they to become tame as the pigeon and sparrow the effect would be spoiled. When I return to my semi-tropical home I intend to tell all whom I meet that I have visited the city with the largest wild bird population in the world. And I will always remember London on account of her birds."

CZAR WAS GRACIOUS.

The Czar on Saturday granted an audience of half an hour to Paul du Chailu, the explorer and author, of New York, who is beginning a trip through Russia which is to last five years. His Majesty readily granted Du Chailu the privilege of traveling under his protection and invited the traveler to visit him whenever he was in St. Petersburg.

The London Times hears that Andrew Carnegie has purchased the library of the late Lord Acton.

King Edward has signed the appointment of Lord Salisbury's principal private secretary, Schomberg McDonnell, to succeed Lord Escher. The Times, in an editorial, says the appointment of McDonnell cannot fail to revive the rumors of the Premier's resignation after the coronation.

GERMANY CHEER FOR THE KING

His Majesty May Be Transferred to His Yacht at the End of the Month.

London, July 7.—At 10 o'clock this morning the following bulletin on King Edward's condition was posted at Buckingham Palace:

"The King had nine hours' natural sleep, and his progress continues to be uninterrupted. The wound is discharging freely, and is less painful to dress." (Signed) Treves, Laking, Barlow.

CORONATION RUMORS

A number of coronation rumors are current. The optimists say King Edward will be quietly crowned six weeks hence. Rear-Admiral John C. Watson, who was to have represented the United States navy at the coronation of King Edward, returns home, however, on July 2, and hopes to come back for the ceremony, the date of which he is quite unable to prognosticate.

It is likely that the coronation will occur somewhere about the end of September, but with little or no pageant, however.

CHEERS FOR THE KING.

Travemunde, Germany, July 7.—After awarding the prizes to the winners in the North German Association's yacht races here, Emperor William read a telegram from King Edward's.

WILL SEE THE KING AND KITCHENER

Colonial Troops' Departure Has Been Postponed.

MAY STAY TILL CORONATION

Investigation of the Canadian Complaints—Camped in Mud—Municipal Body Blamed.

London, July 7.—The government has issued orders that the Indian and colonial troops now in London shall postpone their departure indefinitely. These orders are due to the strongly expressed desire of the Indian contingent, especially, to see the King before they return home, and they also indicate an intention to retain the troops here until the coronation.

The colonial and Indian troops will participate in the reception to be given Lord Kitchener, when he arrives in England about July 12.

THE CANADIAN QUARTERS.

London, July 5.—The Canadian ministers here have carefully inquired into the complaints of the Canadian contingent, which was quartered at the Alexandra Palace, and it is expected that an official statement will be made, and will show that heavy rains during the early part of their visit reduced the camp to a hopeless state of mud.

The distance from an adequate supply of drinking water, also caused much discomfort to the Canadians, and they were much chagrined to find nearly all their allowance of two shillings a day consumed in railway fares between the palace, the city, and the west end, whenever they went sightseeing. This was rectified during the latter part of the visit by the issue of war office passes.

FOOD WAS GOOD.

The evidence shows that the food was excellent, but the arrangements for the quartering of all the colonial contingents at the palace, which, owing to the extraordinary pressure of the coronation, were left in the hands of the local municipal body, which controls the palace, were often deficient.

But there is no denying the general opinion that the parliament office and the high commissioner, who were unwavering in their attention to the colonial contingents, created by the King's illness, and the sudden upsetting of the elaborately laid plans, there was some persons, the colonial people have done everything in the way of hospitality and attention that humanly speaking, could be done. In many cases the colonial visitors were simply spoiled with kindness.

Angry demonstrations have been made by the students at St. Petersburg against the professor who "ploughed" some 50 of their comrades in the recent entrance and pass examinations at the university.

Grey will be well enough July 8 to go to the Continent, though perfect rest is enjoined. As Earl Grey is spokesman of Mr. Rhodes' excoerators, several meetings and an informal discussion by the colonial premiers and others now in London regarding the best method for selecting candidates, have been temporarily postponed.

Earl Grey is a brother of the Countess of Minto, and last winter visited Canada and made many friends at Ottawa and Toronto.

THE NINTH WEEK OF COAL STRIKE

President Mitchell Gone to Interview Labor Leaders.

THE LOSSES OF EIGHT WEEKS

Nearly 9,000 Freight Handlers in Chicago Decide to Strike—Situation in Pawtucket, R. I.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 7.—The ninth week of the anthracite coal miners' strike began today. The strikers of this district are interested in the annual convention which opens at Nantuxet today. President Mitchell is sure of unanimous re-election as are most of the other officers.

President Mitchell's sudden departure for New York yesterday continues to excite interest among miners here. Outside of a statement made by one of his lieutenants last night that he went to New York to see labor leaders, no information can be had here as to the exact purpose of his trip.

The estimated losses for the eight weeks of the strike are as follows: Loss to operators on price of coal (normal) $20,250,000. Loss to strikers in wages $9,900,000. Loss to employers (not strikers) made idle by strike $2,400,000. Loss to business men in coal region $6,750,000. Loss to business men in coal region $4,000,000. Cost of maintaining coal and iron police $500,000. Cost of maintaining non-union workers $140,000. Damage to mines and machinery $2,000,000. Total $46,000,000.

TO BE ARRESTED.

Harrisburg, Pa., July 7.—Sheriff Reiff swore out warrants today for the arrest of ten strikers at Wilkesbarre, this country, for inciting to riot, and interfering with his deputies in protecting non-union men going to and from the mines at Lykens and Williamson.

The sheriff says the situation in the region is critical, and that if there is another outbreak like that of last Wednesday, when he and his deputies were assaulted while protecting non-union miners, he will call upon Gov. Pennell for militia.

Twenty of the rioters were arrested on Thursday at Williamson, and held in jail for court, but the sheriff concluded to ten at Wilkesbarre, and compel the rioters to come to Harrisburg for a hearing. The sheriff came here this morning to make information against the rioters, and returned to the Lykens district at noon to assist his deputies in arresting the strikers, for whom warrants have been issued.

THIRTY-THREE WILL STRIKE.

Chicago, July 6.—The freight handlers, numbering nearly 8,000 men employed in the different railway warehouses and depots in Chicago, at a special meeting tonight, decided to go on strike within forty-eight hours, to enforce their demand for higher wages. Several days ago the Freight Handlers' Union submitted a proposition to the general managers of the railways, asking for an increase in the scale of wages. The request was refused. The railway officials, however, offered to confer with committees from their

HOME-COMING OF KITCHENER

Expected to Reach London on Friday or Saturday.

15,000 TROOPS TO BE IN LINE

The Commander and Gen. French Have Arrived at Las Palmas En Route to England.

London, July 7.—It has been decided to bring into London to line the streets on the occasion of Lord Kitchener's homecoming next Friday or Saturday, 500 cavalry and 10,000 infantry, exclusive of garrison in London and the troops from Windsor and Hounslow, the whole making a total of more than 15,000 men. The colonial troops who came home from South Africa in the Bavarian are to be retained until after Lord Kitchener's arrival, and will, it is understood, in place in the general reception, in which the Indian and other colonial troops may also participate.

AT LAS PALMAS.

Las Palmas, July 6.—Gen. Kitchener and Gen. French, who are returning to England from South Africa, arrived here at sunset this evening. Both are in good health. They were struck with consternation when they learned of the illness of the coronation. The naval and military governors boarded the transport and welcomed them. Gen. Kitchener did not come ashore until the morning of the transport described the Transvaal as a splendid country. Many of them will return there.

This week both the Queen and Prince of Wales will take active parts in the coronation. The naval and military governors boarded the transport and welcomed them. Gen. Kitchener did not come ashore until the morning of the transport described the Transvaal as a splendid country. Many of them will return there.

The season from which so much was expected, has suddenly lapsed, and while there is universal regret over the lamentable cause, there is general relief among the sober-minded Londoners over the prospect of quieter times and normal conditions, with the pressure of the sweltering heat reduced in the streets and a cessation of the hurly-burly and incessant movement of crowds from early morning to midnight. The King will make a popular choice if he decides, when fully restored to health, against attempting to carry out anything but the chief function in the autumn.

EARL GREY IS ILL.

An unfortunate hitch has occurred in the arrangements regarding the Cecil Rhodes scholarships owing to the illness of Earl Grey, who suffered a slight sunstroke in the Channel Islands last week. Serious complications were at first feared, but Earl
