NEW SCHEDULE IS QUITE POPULAR

Street Railway Service on All Lines Gives Satisfaction Rectory Crossing.

It is evident from the fact that no omplaints are heard, that the new schedule put into force on Jan. 2 by the London Street Railway Company is giving satisfaction, and Manager Carr is to be congratulated for this state of affairs. As far as can be learned, the eole of Oxford street and the Hamilton road are well satisfied, and the people of Dundas street and on the belt line are more than pleased with the service. As for the South street belt. t appears to be about as complete as it is posisble to make it until a switch s put in on South street, but even as is it is a splendid accommodation to the people of the south end. Since the new roundhouse has come into use in the east end, the G. T. R. has begun to use another track, which crosses Rectory street, to get the locomotives into the roundhouse, and Manager Carr says the street railway timetable s suffering in consequence. Engineer Graydon is also living in a state of peace these days, and he appears well satisfied with the new
