AT THE GRAND.

Four picture stars appearing in their most successful features will be the attractions at the Grand Opera House for the week commencing with the matinee on Monday.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Owen Moore comes in his six-reel feature, "A Divorce of Convenience." This new picture is an hilarious comedy concoction, in which Moore plays the part of a young man so deeply in love of his bride as to be practically blind, and he acts as if his common judgment was locked up in a safe of which he had lost the combination. It is a riot from start to finish, and in it the favorite star has the support of such talented screen artists as Katherine Perry, the famous Ziegfeld Polles Beauty, and charming Nita Naldi.

Coupled with the Owen Moore feature comes that ace of screen funsters, Larry Semon, as a big added attraction. This time Larry is starred in "The Hook," a machine and comedy every bit as funny as his last big hit, "The Sportman." As a country lad, Larry has a part that fits him like a glove, and his guarantee of a laugh a second while he is on the screen is more than fulfilled.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Elaine Hammerstein is the star in her latest New York success, "The Miracle of Manhattan." This is a story of New York high lights and shadows cleaving sharply through the strata of life in the vicinity of the Great White Way, in which Elaine Hammerstein has ever appeared, and is sure to be a prime favorite with the discerning picture fans who patronize the Grand.

Jimmy Aubrey, in the role of fun picture, "The Blizzard," is the extra attraction for the last half of the week. This is a farce of unique situations and is full of the funniest developments.

There will be the usual big support-act, embracing the interesting up-to-the-minute topics and news review, with a special musical program by the Grand concert orchestra at every matinee and evening performance for the entire week, making the greatest week of high-class pictures the Grand has ever offered. The pre-war prices will prevail at all performances. Daily matinees at 2:15, with two evening performances at 7 and 9.

When you are troubled with diarrhoea, dysentery, colic, cramps and pains in the stomach, cholera, cholera morbus, or summer complaint, bloody flux, or any looseness of the bowels be sure and obtain a bottle of "Dr. Fowler's" and see how quickly it gives you relief. This wonderful remedy has been on the market for the past 76 years, and we wish to warn you against accepting a substitute which may be dangerous to your health.

Mr. Samuel Buckler, Tatamagouche, N. S., writes: "While visiting in Western Canada I had a severe attack of diarrhoea. After trying many proprietary medicines I got no relief, but kept getting worse."

I was advised to take Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and I lost no time in doing so. I cannot hesitate in recommending it most highly, for when I had not yet taken half the bottle I was relieved. I must say that if "Dr. Fowler's" is given a fair trial it will show its good qualities."

is determined to live straight, but who finds it hard to do so, and who actually commits a hold-up and risks imprisonment to save his benefactor from falling victim to the wily schemes of another man to simultaneously make a fortune and to break into society. Thereafter a mad thrill throughout the action which takes place in a palatial home in which Peter, the butler, is hero. In the same hour lives his sweetheart, Claire, a maid who also has a past, but who holds herself subject to Peter's commands. Peter is recognized by a former warden of the prison where he was confined, and his identity is revealed. But the employer decides to give Peter a chance to make good, and the former warden seeks to embroil Peter's employer in a fraudulent scheme to defraud the stockholders of a company in which they both are interested, and when the ex-warden obtains a proxy which gives him the balance of power, Peter contrives a general party at which the former warden is present. The only person who loses proxy is stolen. Peter turns this over to his employer, and when his motive in staging the supposed hold-up is revealed his future is secure. The picture is filled with thrills and there is much reliable comedy. The story is one of dramatic strength and its heart attractions will be shown "Shub" Pollard, in "Teaching the Teacher"; Allen Educational; Charles Jolley, the popular Canadian tenor, will render a selection of solos each performance.

BRYANT WASHBURN, IN HIS NEWEST COMEDY, "A FULL HOUSE," AT ALLEN'S LAST HALF OF NEXT WEEK.

Bryant Washburn has in "A Full House," a new Paramount comedy drama, another of those delightfully conceived comedy roles which have brought him such a high measure of success. "A Full House" was scenarioed by Alice Epton from the famous Fred Jackson stage farce. It will be presented at the Allen Theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday next week. In the picture Bryant Washburn appears as George Howell, a young attorney who gets into most amazing difficulties when he comes to the city for a business trip. This journey has a most amusing maze of complications, involving another man's love letters, stolen jewelry, policemen and thieves. Bryant Washburn's impersonation is a finely-drawn characterization that brings a continuous stream of laughs. Nine-tenths of the action takes place within five rooms of a single home. Opposite the comedian is Lois Wilson, the pretty and popular leading lady. It has been some time since Miss Wilson has appeared in a Washburn picture. Hundreds of her admirers will welcome her back to the company. Other well-known players in the cast include Guy Milham, Hazel Howell, Vera Lewis, Catherine Wal-

PAINFUL NEURALGIA, TORTURING SCIATICA

Both Come From the Same Cause—Thin, Watery Blood.

Most people think of neuralgia as a pain in the head or face, but neuralgia may affect any nerve in the body. Different names are given to it when it affects certain nerves. Thus neuralgia of the sciatic nerve is called sciatica, but the character of the pain and the nature of the disease are the same. The pain in neuralgia is caused by starved nerves. The blood which carries nourishment to the nerves has become thin and impure and no longer does so, and the pain you feel is the cry of the nerves for their natural food. You may ease the pains of neuralgia with hot applications, but real relief from the trouble comes by enriching and purifying the blood. For this purpose Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are strongly recommended. These pills make new, rich blood and thus act as a most effective nerve tonic. If you are suffering from this most dreaded of troubles, or any form of nerve trouble, give these pills a fair trial, and note the ease and comfort that follows their use.

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

Give us a Hand!

CITIZENS of Ontario—The only salvation for Ontario's revenue-producing forests is the prevention of forest fires. Your support and co-operation is absolutely essential.

Forest fires are rapidly diminishing our resources of timber and pulpwood. Over 90 per cent. of Ontario's forest fires are caused by human carelessness.

If everybody was careful to prevent the start of fire, Ontario's Forest would be safe.

Save Ontario's Forests They're Yours

feel their responsibility even though out of sight of the policeman.

SETTLERS can co-operate by exercising more care in setting out fire on their own property.

LUMBER FIRMS can help by impressing on all foremen the need for carefulness. River drivers in dry seasons should be specially warned. Gangs of men going in and out to the camps need special attention, because of the danger along the slash-lined trails from the inevitable cigarette.

THE PRESS could do more public-spirited constructive work to reduce forest fires than any other single agency. This is a non-political campaign in which the whole press could join.

LEADERS OF PUBLIC OPINION in every community should be the first to extend a helping hand. Tell the Chief Ranger or write the Head Office any time you have information or suggestions to impart, or questions to ask.
