

EXPECT EARLY ORDER TO SEND BULLOCK BACK

Inspector Reynolds Arrives in Hamilton From Ottawa To Open Examination.

APPEAL CAN BE MADE

Application On Behalf of the Accused Would Delay Actual Deportation.

Hamilton, Jan. 17.—It is only a matter of days and perhaps hours until Matthew Bullock, the Norlina, N. C. negro, held here on charges of inciting race riots, will be ordered deported. Inspector Reynolds, who is a member of the board that will sit on the case, said there could not be any doubt of that. D. H. Reynolds, traveling inspector, returned from migration department, but had little to say for publication. "What decision did the immigration department reach with regard to the Bullock case?" he was asked.

"What decision did they reach?" he replied. "Why they did not reach any decision. A board will be held here and his case will be disposed of. The board will consist of Inspector Sweeney, myself, Controller Treleven, counsel for the immigrant, and Bullock will also be present. It will not be public, and he will be held in this office." Inspector Reynolds said the board, and to verify his stand on this matter he quoted from the immigration act, which states that the inquiry shall be held in private. Following the decision of this board, Bullock will have the right of appeal to the minister, such an appeal automatically staying deportation.

That the finding will be for deportation is practically an admitted fact. Inspector Reynolds did not say so in any words, but hinted that this would be the case. Inspector Sweeney stated clearly that there was no doubt about his decision to New York State, and said that he had informed Bullock to this effect the first day that he had seen the man after he was placed under arrest. At that time Bullock said that this would be satisfactory to him, as he would still have the opportunity of fighting extradition from New York State.

The board will be held as soon as a time can be fixed satisfactory to Bullock's solicitor, Controller Treleven. It may even be held today if the arrangements can be made in time. After the board has ordered Bullock's deportation, Bullock will make an appeal to the minister of the interior.

JURY ADVISES BETTER BRIDGES AT CROSSINGS

Verdict of Accidental Death Returned in Case of Ernest Langford.

EXACT CAUSE UNKNOWN

Structure Over G.T.R. Tracks Pronounced At Unsafe Angle.

"The jury find that the deceased, Ernest L. Langford, came to his death at Victoria Hospital on Tuesday evening, Jan. 10, as the result of injuries sustained on the same day in an automobile accident at the overhead bridge west of the city limits.

The jurors are at a loss to positively account for the accident. "Whether due to the driver or the weakness of the railing of the bridge, it is impossible to determine from the evidence.

"With the advent of motor traffic, it is incumbent upon municipalities and railway corporations to provide bridge safeguards at crossings. The bridge in question is undoubtedly placed at an unsafe angle, and the wooden railings are of insufficient strength."
