Mr. Walker in discussing the clause, asking the co-operation of the ladies in the work of building up home industry, said it was a most important question. He had some experience when in the Government service and knew that thousands of dollars were being sent out of the city for Eastern goods. Men were sending for clothing to the East when they could get as good right here. The Chamber of Commerce should do all it could towards stopping the practice of sending money out of the city.

Mr. Price moved that it be adopted at once, It was most important that there should be a permanent exhibit.

Mr. Kingham said he agreed with what Mr. Price had said, but what was the object of passing the clauses, if the committee could not be appointed?

The chairman said it was best to proceed with the discussion of the report, as that would expedite the work of dealing with it.

Mr. Walker favored a permanent exhibit, but he wanted the clause to stand over, until some arrangements be considered for the exhibit's maintenance.

The clause passed.

Attention.

Attention temperature of the action of the commerce should be all of the commerce sh with the law—that is, give the required statutory notice of their intention to ex-tend their tracks. Had that been insisted upon by the council, the Victoria Terminal Railway Company would have only required to give 10 days' notice whereas the tramway company would have had to give 30 days' notice—these being provisions in the respective by laws governing the relationship of the companies with the city. But as it turned out, notice was simultaneously waived in both cases. ENCROACHMENT ON PROPERTY.

A matter which is now before the IN FAIRHAVEN council in statu quo, but which will be taken up as soon as the aldermen "get round to it," refers to the re-defining of boundaries of city property adjacent to the foreshore along Dallas road, in the vicinity of Clover Point. There are three parties interested in the matterthe Dominion government, the city and private property owners. It appears that some time ago the city had its attention drawn to the fact that gravel was being removed from the foreshore
