

Mrs. A. Bruhm lives at Northfield, N.S., and lier little daughter, while playing at a bon-fire, was set ablaze. She was burned so seriously that her life was despaired of. Zam-Buk was applied to the burns, and not only did it give relief, but it healed the burns and saved the child's life. "You may rest assured," writes the grateful mother, "that our home will never be without Zam-Buk!" You need no harrowing details, no high-flown language to gather this on:—For burns—sustained while ironing, opening the oven door, striking aaach, handling a stote lid—just as soon as any burn is sustained put on n-Bul. In from ten to thirty minutes, according to the severity of the

Just as good for scalds, cuts, etc., and a positive specific for eczema ulcers, skin diveaves and for piles. 50 cents, all druggists and stores, or posfree for price from Zun-Buk Co., Toronto. Why not try it?

We regret to inform our subscrib ers that owing to an accident to our newspaper printing press last Thurs-day, were were unable to send complete copies of last issue to all our subscribers. In order to complete our issue we had to make quick arrange ments and we were indebted to Mr C S O Crockett of the Tribune for the use of his press to finish our printing. Mr. Crockett has kindly printing the Graphic until repairs are effected on our own plant here, but until this is done we will only issue until this is done we will only issue four pages.

We have every reason to believe that the new parts for the press will be here and in place for next issue, when we hope to issue in full eight page form as before.

At this time we desire to place on record our appreciation of the kindness of Mr. Crockett in assisting us by letting our staff have the use of his newspaper press, an action which receives our best thanks.
