IRISHMEN OF MANCHESTER

And Suggests the Panacea for Ireland's Woes-A Confidence Asked tor-An Arrest at Glasgow.
London, May 21. The Times says the Parnellite amendments to the repression bill be most un compromising, particularly in regard to the clause abolishing trial by jury. Parnell has warned his party in Ireland that the number of evicted tenants now applicants for relief from the land league is upward of 25,000 and the fund on hand is entirely inadequate. Many of the Irish used for the purposes of relief. Davitt, addressing a meeting of Irishmen at Manchester, said nobody lamented the recent murders more than he, and nobody was readier to prevent such crimes in future, but without the presence of police and nilitary the property of Irish landlords ourchase. There could be no alliance between Irishmen and English whigs until andlordism is completely abolished.
