World. Toronto The

FIFTH YEAR.

A MAN OF MANY WIVES. FERRY ASKS FOR FRANCS

Charles Newbold on Trial at Toledo-Hecting of his Victims.

Toledo, Nov. 26.—Charles Neiville, alias ridge managed her father's house as working housekeeper for six years, receiving £80 yearly. Since she left her father's house she has lived in a small lodging

EASTON, Pa., Nov. 26 .- A feeling of dis house and received no regular allowance from her father, only occasional checks. She has nothing except what she has saved satisfaction exists among the employes of the Jersey Central and Lehigh and Susque hanna divisions of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad over a proposed reduction The Parnellites make a mistake if they of from 5 to 40 per cent, in wages. If the reduction is made the indications are that it will not be accepted by the engineers, fancy that the new chief secretary for Ireland wili be less firm than his predecessor. firemen and other train hands. A rumor that all the employes will be required to withdraw from the various brotherhoods causes considerable commotion among the It is probably because Mr. Campbell-Bannerman possesses so many of the qualities of Lord Hartington that he has been chosen to succeed Mr. Trevelyan. A model of to succeed Mr. Trevelyan. A model of courtesy, he is one of the few men in the house who is impervious to personalities. His appointment does not, of course, imply any change in the policy of the government, but it is believed that his remarkably couple temper will be proof against A Corrupt Customs Official. WASHINGTON, Nov. 26 -Some time ago charges of bribery were made against Inspector James R. Davies of the New York ably equable temper will be proof against custom house. It was alleged that he had the most violent attacks that may be made upon him. He is an able speaker, a careful administrator, and a politician whose moderation has never been disputed. London, Nov. 26.—Regarding a conference of liberal and conservative leaders at. Gladstone's residence to-day, the Standard says there is good reason to believe an amicable solution of the redistribution problem is by no means certain, as there are several very difficult obstacles to over-A Protest from Spanish Professors. MADRID, Nov. 26 .- Sixty professors of the university, including democrats, con stitutionalists and conservatives, have signed a protest against the invasion of the university and the conduct of troops toward

Large additional supplies are wanted for Isolated deaths from cholera continue to be reported at Paris.

Five heavy shocks of earthquake were felt at Graetz yesterday.

Friendly relations have been resumed

The municipal elections at Bublin and Cork resulted in nationalist gains. Three anti-German papers have been suppressed in Alsace and Lorraine. The Umbria made the passage from New York to Queenstown in 6 days 15 hours. The motion in the Beigian chamber of

A hundred thousand persons left Paris during the cholera epidemic. A great number are now returning.

Scarboro Brothers, worsted spinners at Halifax, England, have failed for £130,000. Depression in the trade is the cause. The French government will send two more cruisers to the west coast of Africa in view of the possible results of the Congo the German reienstag yesterday that the local court of the duchy of Brunswick is in to the bone and will die. favor of the duke of Cumberland as suc-

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 26.—Mme. Mathilda tizan purposes. Franzica Anneke, who took an active part in the German troubles of 1848, and who, when the revolutionists were overpowered, fled to this country, died in this city last night, aged 67. She was one of the most remarkable women of the age. In the revelution in which her husband was a Brooklyn yesterday. revolution in which her prominent officer she campaigned with the prominent officer she campaigned with the soldiers and fought bravely as a private. Later she edited a revolutionary paper. In this country she has written several books and founded a female seminary.

men with drawn revolvers entered theresidence of Geo. Young and Levy Wisman, near Beaver, to day, and after terrifying the occupants bound and gagged both men and several ladies present. Search of the house was then made, and $600 and a large lot of jewelry and silverware were taken. The ronbers escaped.

Commetion Among Railway Employes.

Missing Indian Smith of Sarnia township was supported by the contesting dogs.

The race between Snipe and Dan was for a quarter of beef. Last night Mr. Clow decided to divide the quarter equally between the girls' and boys' homes. Puck White gives a fat turkey and Mr. Oloott two pairs of rabits. These articles will go in the courthouse, Kingston, commencing Tuesday, Dec. 2.

Grading on the Canadian D.

Grading on custom house. It was alleged that he had received sums of money from several tea importers in Boston. Davies acknowledges having received money from Boston parties, but contends it was for lobbying a bill through congress creating his office, and not for services while he occupied his present position. The prevailing opinion here is that Davies will be removed.

4 Scandal Takes a New Turn. BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Nov. 26 .- The scandal in the state university, involving President Moss, has taken a new turn. The relatives of the lady professor, Catherine Gayden, appeared yesterday before the trustees and asked to recall her resignation, and demanded her reinstatement, when she would again resign. They are satisfied that the lady submitted to Moss affections to embrages under moral duress affections to embrages under moral duress. affectionate embraces under moral duress.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26 .- A Havana letter says the announcement of the conclusion of the Spanish-American treaty has been joyfully received here.

A Madrid despatch says: In recognition of the important services rendered in the negotiation of the commercial treaty with the United States, the gran cruz de Carlos III. has been given Dr. Salvador Albacete.

Protect the Puffers. NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Efforts are being made by the cigarmakers to secure the rejection by the United States senate of that clause of the proposed Spanish-American treaty by which cigars may be imported at a reduction of 50 per cent, on the John Herchold, a lawyer, killed himself at Erie, Pa., because he recently lost his the Eastern pig-iron association to organize a general tariff club.

At Little Rock, Ark., yesterday, Frank Casey, colored, the must Wilson, was hanged. Mrs. August Lempke, wife of a promi-

The New York associated press denies that the returns of the presidential election in New York state were doctored for par-The general passenger agents of east-

day and agreed to restore passenger rates

Mrs. Bronson took poison at Westfield, Mass., and told her husband her spirit would visit and comfort him occasionally.
He watched by her side until she died.

Reaction Against the Scott Act.

SEERBROORE, Que., Nov. 26.—The Scott act was deleated in Compton to-day by act was deleated in Compton to-day by 160, with three townships to hear from.

THE MYSTERIOUS PLAGUE

THE UNKNOWN DISEASE STILL

**PROPORTION OF THE STREET OF THE PROPORTION OF THE STREET OF THE STREET

mile a day. The grade is now ten or twelve miles west of Dunmore.

The heads of all departments of the Can-ada Southern railway have been notified to reduce their working force ten per cent., on account of the decrease in traffic re-usual swimming place yesterday, Nov. 13, says the Fort Macleod Gazette. The air was like summer, and the water was no colder than it is below Quebec in the middle of summer. A Quebec government engineer has in pected the Pontiac and Pacific junction allway. There are now twenty-two miles of the road constructed, and passenger and reight trains will be running from Aylmer Ouyon in a short time. George Billington, a wealthy farmer of South Dovchester, was before the magistrate at Belmont charged by a young mannamed Connell with shooting at him when demanding his month's wages. Connell is employed by Billington. The prisoner was remanded.

A Port Hope Editor Thrashed. PORT HOPE, Nov. 26.—George editor of the Guide, was thrashed on Walton street Friday by Henry White, a law clerk. An insulting reference was made to Mr. White in Thursday night's Guide, and Mr. White in Thursday night's Guide, and as he had previously warned Mr. Wilson that if he referred to him in a slighting way in his paper again he would publicly chastise him for it, he made good his word. Wilson was again assaulted Saturday evening, the assailant in this instance being Samuel Sculthorpe, owner of one of the Port Hope elevators. The assault took company, but Mr. Wilson escaped by the back door with very little injury. This makes the eighth time the Guide man has QUEBEC, Nov. 26.—The news of the ommutation of Mrs. Boutel's sentence was eceived with general satisfaction. The unfortunate woman heard the news with almost unbounded joy, while her husband cried like a child with happiness and fell on his knees in prayer.

Snow Storms on the Upper Lakes. Sault and local ports, having experienced very heavy weather, with blinding snow storms. She reports the steam barge Tecumseth ashore at St. Michael's bay. All hands were safe.

WOODSTOCK, Nov. 26.—This morning a fire broke out in Dickson & Cranston's stationery store, completely gutting the building. The contents are almost a total loss. Insured for $6500. The building is owned by F. Nisbet of Kingston, who is insured for $2000.

ALLISTON, Nov. 26.—Samuel Donnelly

The body of Hugh Campbell, brother of Chief of Police Campbell and of Congressman Campbell, was found in the canal at Brooklyn yesterday.

THURSDAY MORNING NOVEMBER 27, 1884. THE LION OF LONDON, Empire club.

LONDON, Mov. 26.—The Empire club banqueted Sir John A. Macdonald, premier ardor and enthusiasm. At Sydney great attention is paid to getting accurate times, which are taken by electricity. Over the which are taken by electricity. Over the judges' box a clock with a dial six feet in diameter is suspended, and this is connected by wires with the posts which mark the fractional distances. If the race is two miles and a quarter, the button on the quarter poet is touched the moment the flag goes down, and the electric current sounds a gong at the judges' stand and sets in motion the clock. Thousands are thus able to fellow the recording hands while watching the mace. The instant the nose of the winning horse crosses the score, the judge touches a button which stops the clock. The time is thus accurately taken, and there is no chance for misrepresentaand there is no chance for misrepresent

Snow-Shoeing on the Boom. Snow-shoeing in Toronto received a sub stantial impetus last night at a meeting of the Toronto club held at Thomas'. This the Toronto club held at Thomas'. This exhilarating sport will probably prove one of the most attractive of the present season, and Toronto may yet rival Montreal in this respect. No fewer than thirty five new members were proposed at last night's meeting. Several important amendments to the bylaws were made. It was decided to ask the other athletic clubs of the city to meet and send delegates to a meeting to be held to discuss the advisability of starting a gymnasium in the city. The following were appointed from this club: Messrs. McLaren, Dwight, Boulton, Brock and George.

The Champton's Belt Melted Down. The four men charged with stealing the champion belt of English pugilists were discharged at Birmingham for want of sufcharged at Birmingham for want of sufficient evidence. The belt, which was of solid silver, lined with velvet, is said to have been the identical "honor" for which sayers and Heenan fought in their remarkable encounter in 1860. The police state that they know by whom the belt was purchased for less than one-renth of its value, and that it has been melted down. Further proceedings are likely to be taken in the matter.

BRIGHTON BEACH, Nov. 26.-First race mile, John Y. won; Myrtle 2, Bonnie Owen Sound, Nov. 26.—The steamer Pacific arrived here this morning from the Sault and local ports, having experienced very heavy weather, with blinding snow storms. She reports the steam barge treumseth ashore at St. Michael's bay. All hands were safe.

A Blaze at Woodstock.

Weodstock, Nov. 26.—This morning a # mile, John Y. won; Myrtle 2, Bonnie Lee 3; time 1.20½, Second race, mile and a furlong, Harriet won, Jim Carlisle 2, Lillie B. 3d; time 1.59½. Third race, mile and a furlong, Huron won, Haledon 2, Little Dan 3; time 2.00½. Fourth race, 1½ miles, Bouncer won, Farewell 2, Cen tennial 3; time 2.13. Fifth race, seven furlongs, Wellington won, Valient 2, Pilferer 5; time 1.33½.

Bloody Affray Between Mexicans

ies on Fraccidentally killed at the Northern station here last evening while coupling cars. His parents reside near Churchill.

Man and for the building is curred at the Canonea copper camp, Sonora, Saturday, resulting in the death of six men and the wounding of a number of others. The Mexicans stoned an American teamster. The other Americans armed the maelves and the attempt of the Mexican police to disarm them caused the affray. Tucson, Ariz., Nov. 26 .- A tragedy oc-the faithful should get the contract for supplying the dinner; they should be more anxious that a good meal is provided, irrespective of the caterer's politics.

Reaction Against the Scott Act.

SEERBROOFE, Que., Nov. 26.—The Scott and detaining her at a hotel over night, was sentenced to four years and six months.

MANGLED BY AN ENGINE. A CARTER AND HIS HORSE IN-STANTLY KILLED.

The prospect of a flood of cheap American whisky has created a sensation in the town and in the province. The distillers will probably seek protective legislation to will probably seek protective legislation to keep it out; the temperance party will be compelled to back them up, as they say there is too much in the country now of our own make let alone of our neighbor's production. The hotel men (those of them that will be left by the Scott act) welcome the prospect of the flood, as they say they will need all the profit that can be squeezed out of the business. Three consumers of the stuff said yesterday that now would be the time to form a cellar: to buy barrels sufficient to last the balance of their lifetime, put it down stairs, and Scott act or prohibitory law to the contrary, they lifetime, put it down stairs, and Scott act or prohibitory law to the contrary, they would never know what it would be to be without the comforting juice. There was a time when whisky was 25 cents a gallon in this country; if something is not done to keep out the Kentucky article it will be almost as cheap again.

The jingle of sleigh bells made the street of Toronto merry yesterday and a number of Toronto merry yesterday and a number of cutters made their appearance. On the block-paved streets the past few days the horses have had a very hard time of it. The blocks have been very slippery and the meagre cevering of light snow fills up the horses' hoofs, making equine navigation difficult and dangerous.

A traveler down from Winnipeg say that city is the ex-bank managers paradise, if judged by numbers. Two have been re-moved by inspectors within the past fort-night to swell the ever-increasing throng already in the place. They would not pursue a conservative course with the bank's funds. Dramatist and Actor.

Dion Boucicault, supported by his com any, which includes two of his own family, opens at the Grand on Monday in The Shaugraun, followed by Arrah-na-Pogue and the Colleen Bawn, all plays of his own and in the portrayal of which he is unrivalled. Confidence in Federal. Since the meeting of shareholders the publication of Mr. Yarker's statement, quite a number of the Federal bank's customers who had to withdraw pending the settlement of its affairs, have now taken their accounts back to the Federal.

Bradstreets yesterday reported the folowing business troubles: V. Taillefer, lowing business troubles: V. Taillefer, general store, Cornwall, assigned; W. Mitchell, grocer, Goderich, sheriff in possession; A, J. Hodge, grocer, Toronto, assigned in trust; T. S. Calkins, print, Walkerton, assigned. Alex. Perry, stationery, and Nelson Bros., stationery, Winnipeg, assigned; Mrs. E. Lambert, dry goods, St. Boniface, seized by the sheriff.

"We are such stuff as dreams are made of."

Beheld an image of the dream of dreams:

A child woke in a meadow garlanded

With many a flower, the tired bee's balmy bed

And nectarous feast; oft-interlaced streams

Through green leaves smiled with blue, altur
ing gleams

Of liquid light, the birdssang overhead.

And on the land the lavish sun-2od shed

The gold wherewith his Eldorado teems.

But when, grown gray, the child, with weary feet,

feet,
Pressed near the meadow's heart, to take his rest,
Song lulled, intoxicate with odors sweet,
An earthquake shock uptore its bloomy breast,
And lo! a gulf! fierce blasts of poisonous heat,
And all that beauty by black death possessed!
—C. T. Dazey, in the Desember Century.

PRICE ONE CENT.

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE NEWS. Teetings of the Literary, Scientific and Mathematical Societies — The Glee Club.

At an adjourned meeting of the Natural Science association last night, Prof. R. Ramsey Wright in the chair, a paper on mittee held in the executive committee reom in the city hall yesterday afternoon. room in the city hall yesterday afternoon. The Rolyat street police matter was opened up by Mayor Boswell. His worship said that his fellow commissioners found they had enough cash on hand to patch up the money needed to build the station according to estimate by Architect Stewart. The committee agreed to this transfer, but insisted that the site should be changed. His worship promised that he would do all in his power to induce the commissioners to pitch on a place where the station would give no annoyance to property owners. managed to get the committee to withirsw from a previous agreement to lease a small part of a city lot in St. Paul's ward to the street railway company for an extension o

The fortnightly meeting of the Trinity church young people's association was held Tuesday evening, A. D. Dewdney in the chair. There was a large attendance of chair. There was a large attendance of members and visitors, a number of whom subsequently joined the association. After the transaction of general business, A.-H. and G. Lye favored the meeting with a solo (piano and flute). Then followed the debate on the subject, "Resolved that women have a greater influence over men than money." Claude Bolton and Christopher K. Rugers supported the affirmative. than money." Claude Bolton and Christopher K. Rogers supported the affirmative, and A. D. Dewdney and A. H. Dewdney the negative. The chairman did not sum up, but directed the audience to vote for the merits or demerits of the arguments, and not the question. A show of hands was then called, and the affirmative won. J. B. Rogers acted as chairman during the debate.

The case of Hogg against Maguire, a disputed will case, was argued in the court of appeal yesterday. On April 17, 1882, appeal yesterday. On April 17, 1882,

Edward Brown, who kept the hotel at Lombard and Victoria streets, died, and an hour or two before his death he made a will, which will the plaintiff, a sister of the testator, contends is invalid, and sets up a prior will made in 1880. Judge Proudfoot, at the trial, decided in favor of the defendants and upheld the last will, although it was made under very peculiar circumstances, and the plaintiff accordingly now appeals. Judgment was reserved.

Officers of the Old Fire Brigade. At a meeting of the Toronto Old Fire Brigade association at the Temperance hal Brigade association at the Temperance hall last night the following officers were elected: James Bennett, president; Thos. Pell, vice-president; Henry E. Hamilton, treasurer; Robt. Morrison, secretary; executive committee, W. C. Morrison, A. Johnson, Chas. Corin, T. McIllvae, B. Jollings, Jas. McQuillan, Geo. Pearsall and F. Martin. It was also resolved to hold the third annual ball in the month of January.

A Young Sailer Drowned. Thos. Fraser, a young sailor belonging to the schooner Ariadne, now lying in the harbor, was drowned Tuesday night while pulling from his vessel to shore. Esplanade Constable Williams recovered the body yesteaday morning and it will be interred by the seamen's union. Deceased was a native of the isle of Skye.

dent to a World reporter yesterday. "Four-legs mayors in succession: James Beaty, the tate Angua Morrison, W. B. McMurrich and A. R. Boswell. It is time the lawyers

DEAD AGAINST BISMARCK

THE MEMBERS OF THE REICHSTAG VOTE THEMSELVES SALARIES.

BERLIN, Nov. 26.—The reichstag to-day by a vote of 180 against 99 adopted a reso-

Logan's crossing, on the Grand Trunk railway, east of the Don, was the scene of another fatal accident yesterday morning st 9 o'clock. The victim was David Williamson, a man aged about 60, who lived on Gerrard street, near Broadview avenue. Williamson, who was employed as a carter by P. Burns, coal dealer, was driving his horse and cart upto the crossing when the Grand Trunk express from the west crossed the track in front of him. At the same time the express from the west trossed the crossing. Before he coal get out of the way he was struck, but not noticing it Williamston started across the track as soon as the outgoing the track as a constilled instantly, being thrown many feet down the track. The cart was smashed into splinters and Williamson was killed instantly, being thrown many feet down the track. The horse was hurled in another direction and Williamson was whiled in stantly, seing the track when whistles, but before the short danger whistles, but before the

Col. Walker of Montreal is at the Queen's.
Dr. A. F. Rogers of Ottawa is registered at the Queen's.
Colonel Bob Ingersoll is a great favorite with the cowboys.
Judge Dartnell of Whitby is registered at the Walker house.
Mrs. Innes, mother of James Innes, M.P., died at Guelph yesterday, aged 82.
Lt.-Col. A. H. Macdonald and Mayor Chase of Guelph are guests at the Rossin.
Queen Victoria yesterday invested Sir John A. Macdonald with the order of the bath.
Bay Dr. Sexton of London, Eng., enjoyed Rev. Dr. Sexton of London, Eng., enjoyed his first s eigh drive at Guelph yesterday.

valescent.

S. Barker of the Northern, A. White of the Midland and Mr. Nash of the Grand Trunk are at the Queen's hotel.

Ex-Empress Eugenie is now able, it is said, to refer to her unfortunate son without being overcome with sorrow.

Mr. Whitridge of New York is to be married to Miss Arnold, elder daughter of Matthew Arnold, on Dec. 2 at Cobham.

Children chapcellor of the exchequer, will Childers, chancellor of the exchequer, will probably be succeeded by Goschen, owing to the failing health of Childers.

City Property Affairs.

Ald. John Irwin (chairman), Mayor Boswell, Woods, Hastings, Defoe, Blevins, Carroll, Steiner, Harvie, Walker, S. A.

Denison and Sheppard were all present at the study of Shakespeare.

Joaquin Miller's log-cabin chimney is nounced "un-western" by a competent cr. Perhaps Joaquin availed himself of a policonse when he constructed it.

Professor Huxley's daughters are coun among the prettiest girs in London; and the who know the professor say the law of her ity does not hold good in them.

From the Hamilton Times.

It is pleasing to know that there is at lead one honest man in Toronto.

Ever since Charles Riordon has settled in Ever since Charles Riordon has settled in Toronto, purchased a carriage and taken oversight of the Riordon papers, there has been some misunderstanding as to what the style and status of the different parties connected with the combination should be. It was settled yesterday in the matter of their different carriages, and the same rule will govern in other things. Mr. Riordon is to have a double team and carriage with coachman and footteam and carriage with coachman and foot man, and is always to have the place of honor street door.
Well, what am I to have? said the edit and can take the street cars.

And in this order they can be seen pursu their way dai'y.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING. How like Sir John is to dear old Dizzy-Her

Do you know I think so myself—Sir John I'm keeping a list of the dinners S:r John was asked to—Martin J. Gruffun. No Grit caterer need apply-The Bane THE WORLD WOULD LIKE TO KNOW

If Sir John really did borrow one of Dizzy's old suits to attend the banquet at the Beaconsfield club.

And if thereby he heightened the res

And if thereby he heightened the resemb-lance to the departed sphinx.

If the local insurance companies will pay dividends out of capital.

If Mr. Withrow is going to run.

If sleigh-riding under the electric light isn't If it is really true that Lum Scales

o accep

Dol-

Prices.

t-class ntee a

ERS.

innipeg.

Attend-

Night