From the Order Founded by His Grace. D.D. Archb shop of Toronto. MAY IT PLEASE YOUR GRACE : We the offi Sers and members of branches 15, 49, 85 and 111 of the Catholic Mutual Benevolent Association Toronto bid you hearty welcome to the metropolis of Ontario. As catholics we rejoice n the acquisition of a beloved and learned spiritual father, as branches of an organization of which Your Grace is an active member and of which your Grace is an active memoer and rand spiritual adviser, we feel justly proud of the distinction of your promotion to the Metropolitan See and first city of the province. When Divine Providence was pleased to can to discrement the distinguished and illustrious as appointed to obtain information as to the was appointed to obtain information as to the record the city police forces:

| Manual Divine Providence was pleased to can to mittee with power to and to obtain information as to the record was appointed to obtain Archtishon Lynch, the eyes of his bere wed people turned wistfully towards Your Grace. Their prayers were not unheard. The Vicar of Christ, the glorious Pontiff Leo XIII, prompt-ed by the Holy Spirit who is over with His ed by the Holy Spirit who is over win his Church, appointed Your Grace—already chosen in the hearts of the people—to the widowed Archdiocese of Toronto. We half that appointment with glad acclaim and treasure it in our innest hearts with profound gratitude. Your great labours and magnaninous sacrifices in the diocese of London have not escaped our labour that the control of the great labours and magnaminous sacrifices in the diocess of London have not escaped our notice. Enduring and colossal monuments attest the genuine nature of your solid and fruitful work. With zealous priests of God, majestic temples of worship, catholic houses of charity and attractive homes of learning you have adorned and beautified the field of your twenty-two yours' labor in the Episcopate. Amid the multiplicity of your duties the work of organized benevolence has received your fostering care and close attention,
Your Grace was chiefly instrumental in introducing the C.M.B.A. to Canada. The Dioi sees of London is still its home on Canadian soil. You have been its spiritual counsellor and steadfast friend. The celat of your name and marks of high appreciation have commended its to many Catholics, They have not been mistaken. Under Your Grace's spiritual direction, within the brief period of nine years. 112 branches with a membership of 4500 have been organized in Canada. In the great republic its progress has been still more rapid.

Your Grace, its progress will be more marked and satisfactory.

In speaking for the Toronto branches we feel that we voice the sentiments of the whole organization in extending a warm and heartfelt wellowing to Your Grace. You are now our chief pastor. We shall over revere your Episcopal anthofity, and in all that pertains to the yord of society, all that rends to the promotion of Catholic interests, you shall find the C.M.

Mr. McCarthy, in the Supreme Court this morning, made his motion to bring on the Haldimand election case, too late to be inscribed at this court immediately. In support of his statement he complained that while the trial took place in the early part of September, on the 10th, and the question of costs on Oct. 14, the record was not forwarded to the Supreme Court until Nov. 22. He admitted there was no blame to be attached to the re-
