SAINT ANDREWS, N. B., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 92, 1849. No 34

POETRY

MOTHER, HOME, AND HEAVEN. "The three sweetest words in the English language are Mother, Home, and Heaven."

The first fond words our hearts express, In childhood's rosy hours, When lite seems full of happiness, As nature is of flowers ; A word that manhood loves to sneak. When time has placed upon his cheek,

And written on his brow, Stern lessons of the world's untruth Unbeeded in his thoughtless youth, But sadly pondered now; As time bringa back, 'mid vanished years, A mother's fondest hopes and fears.

The only Eden left untouched, Free from the tempter's snare; A paradise where kindred hearts May revel without care : A wife's glad smile is imaged here, And eyes that never knew a tear; Save those of happiness, Beam on the hearts that wander back, From off the long and beaten track Of sordid worldliness; To task those purer joys that come Like angels round the hearth at Home.

The end of all a Mother's prayers-The Home of all her dreams ; The guiding star to light our path, With hope's encheering beams-The heaven for our storm-tossed barque, From out a world where, wild and dark, The tempests often rise-But still in every darksome hour, This hope will rise with holy power, And point us to the skies, Where Mother, Home, and Heaven are seen Without a cloud to intervene
