"Mr. Henry Kingsley is to be welcomed among the masters of modern fiction. 'Ravenshoe' gives him place with Thackeray, Charles Kingsley, Dickens, and Mrs. Stowe. The book is one of great power."—Hartford Press.

THE RECOLLECTIONS OF GEOFFRY HAMLYN. I vol. 12mo., 538 pages.

"It is fresh, breezy, healthy, straightforward, free from nonsense, full of the most delightful descriptive passages, yet with no long digressions, dramatic, warlike, adventurous, tender at times; indispensable and omnipresent love not being neglected, while the friendships formed in the Australian deserts are admirably described. . . The whole book, in fine, is admirable."—Springfield Republican.

RAVENSHOE. I vol. 12mo., 434 pages. $1.75.

AUSTIN ELLIOT. I vol. 12mo., 360 pages. $1.75.

"'Austin Elliot' is a novel such as is not found every day in this novel writing age. It is real, genuine. Its characters are live persons, who act as people do in this world, and express themselves in a language that is not entirely different from that of ordinary life. The consequence is, that every character in this book possesses a distinct individuality, which will be remembered long by the reader; and the most important incidents of the plot, which is of much interest, happen naturally and quietly. Through the whole volume the author shows a quiet humor and honest love of fun which give a genial glow to his chapters, and establish the pleasantest relations between him and his readers."—New York Tribune.

LEIGHTON COURT. A Country-House Story. I vol. 16mo., 200 pages. $1.50.

"This is a charming story. . . . The style is wonderfully fresh and vigorous; the plot is ingenious and interesting; and the characters are drawn with a sharpness of outline and a dramatic discrimination that shows the hand of a master; and the landscape-painting is as fine as only Mr. Kingsley could have made it."—Boston Advertiser.
