

AT the request of several friends and patrons, the author has here collected a few miscellaneous writings, long out of print, copies of which many have expressed a desire to have.