\eta_{00}^{00} child's share=2 \times \eta_{00}^{0} of brother's share. brother's share=\eta_{00}^{0} of child's share. 5 child's share \times \eta_{00}^{0} =$12670 and child's share=\frac{1904}{1904} ×$12670-1% of this sum.

∴ child's share=$1,940-1% of $1940 = $1920.60.

∴ Brother's share=\frac{1904}{1904} of $1920.60-3% of \frac{1904}{1904} of $1920.60=

An address, couched in feeling words, and expressed in elegant language, was read by Miss Ada Ferguson, and the presentation was made by Mr. C. Cameron. Mr. Merchant replied in appropriate words, thanking the pupils for their kind address and beautiful present, and wishing the school and pupils success in the future.

Many of the lady teachers through the country are getting up Christmas entertainments, loading trees with Christmas .oy-fruit, and such like events of a pleasurable and seasonable cature. Well done, ladies! The Christmas fruit,—not visible on the tree, but surely lurking in its branches,—namely, friendship, good-will, love, will be more durable than any other; and kind hands and smiling faces will be remembered for years, though the toys be broken, the books torn, and the candies have vanished. Ladies, you have struck the right chord.

Mr. P. E. Harding, late principal of S. S. No. 3, Fullerton, who is about to enter the ministry, was presented by his pupils at an entertamment held after school examination, with a fur overcoat and an address. Captain Francis presided on the occasion, and Master John Gill, on behalf of the pupils, presented the seasonable and valuable gift. The trustees expressed their satisfaction with the state of the school and the progress made during the three years Mr. Harding had been principal. Miss Francis is retained in the junior department for another year.
