NORTH WILLIAMSBURGH SONS.

CORNWALL, 16th Jan , 1853

Sig and ha iner,—It is now over a year since I became a reader of the Son, and from the bene-I became a reader of the Sor, and from the benefit derived from it in my tennily, feel grateful that I have the opportunity of having a family paper, which I believe second to none in the Province, for the small sum of Ss annualy. In proof of my gratitude I ence se you my subservation for 1853,—please direct to Wm. Hill, North Williamsburgh, C. W., and another which you will be kind enough to direct to Mr. John Hill, Drummaway, Randalstown P. O., county Antim, Ireland.

town P O, county Antrim, Ireland.

Permit me to remark that me information received by Br. Carlyle, and published in a late number of the Son, as to jealousy among the Sons of North Williamsburgh with regard to office, is totally unfounded, and whoever gave Br. Carlyle the indenounced, and who were garden by Carlyle's address I would let him know what I om sure he would be glad to hear; that is, that North Williamsburgh Division, No 328 is doing well, better than when Br. Carlyle went West. Our rebetter than when Br. Oathyte the last quarter were turns to the Grand Division the last quarter were nearly double what they were the quarter before.

Our funds are in a good state.

Yours, in L. P. and F.,

WM. HILL.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The Hon. Mr. Howe of Nova Scoua is in England negotiating for the construction of the Grand Trunk Railway to connect the Lower with the Upper British Provinces. It is supposed he will secure the assistance of the British Government so far as his Province is concerned but to obtain the consent of Canada to aid by her funds, may be a difficult thing..... Lord John Russel is editing the works of the late Thomas Moore, which are to appear in ten volumes soon. It seems a statesman can find time for literary pursuits.....Steam vessels are to be employed in carrying on the trade between England and Africa....The Arabia steamer brought from Europe some interesting items of news. She left Liverpool on the lat January.

...Kossuth's mother had died in Belgium, and the miserable Government of that kingdom, afraid of Russia and France had refused him liberty to see her. Alas for human meanness!
...Mr. Heald, Lola Montez's husband was drowned in Lisbon lately....The Provision Markets had declined a little—cotton had declined. ed in price....Queen Victoria is again in an interesting situation... 1 warm debate has arisen in the American Senate in relation to the question whether the Eritish according to a late treaty-made between Great Britain and the United States, in respect of the occupation of Central America, had not agreed to surrender all right of occupation of any part of central America. General Cass and several other Senators contended she did, whilst Mr. Clayton the then Secretary of State, denies Mr. Cass's construction of the treaty.....General Pierce is the great object of attraction now in the United States. Office seekers—IJ what a detestable crew they are everywhere—are following him like bloodhounds. The melancholy death of President Pierce's young son is casting a gloom over the society of New Hampshire...The Deallsh Ministry are it is and maturing the English Ministry are, it is said, maturing some extensive reforms in the representation law and commercial systems.

From the United States we have nothing new in the Temperance way. The great gathering came off at Albany to due course—the particulars will be given in our next.

NEWS BY THE EUROPA.—Banquets are being given by their friends to members of the late Government. A terrible casualty has happened to a passenger vessel sailing from Liverpool to New York The ship took fire and the crew narrowly escaped destruction, by the aid of another vessel.

.....Fears are entertained of the loss of the mail steamer Australian past her time, laden with £1,000,000 of gold from Sydney.... Lola Montes's hasband is not drowned..... The English revenue has increased near a milion pounds during the year.....Vienna is to be defended by a chain of fortifications—similar to those of Paris.....Changes are being made in the Spanish Colonial offices.

...The rebels in Tarkey are holding their ground and giving her much trouble... The imprisonment of the Madmi in Italy by the Inquisition is creating great excitement—a meeting to temonstrate against it has been held in New York. Their crime is reading the Bible.

DOMESTIC NEWS

J. G. Bowes, Esq. has been elected Mayor of Toronto, by a majority of one over John Bell, Esq., Barrister....Mr. McKecknie has been elected Mayor of Cobourg...Mr. Counter of Kingston...Mr. Roblin will be Warden of the county of Floatenac...Robert Spence, Esq. of Dundas, has resigned his seat in the Dundas town council, owing as he said to bad usages on the part of the electors, in not austaining him by a sufficiently large vote. He thinks he has been ungratefully used. In the North American of last week, we observe a mean attack on this gentleman on account of the Dunc'ss difficulties. We believe there is a difference there as to a Canal bill introduced into the House of Assembly at the last session. Mr. Spence we L. on the subject immediately. The proposal at the Cameron dinner in this city about a year i ago. The merits of his difficulty in Dundas we do not know. This we will say, however, that it is extremely mean in the poor tool that edits the North American to attack a man who was instrumental more than any other in Canada, in bringing about the arrangement of the combination ministry. He did so no doubt, at the time, from patriotic motives. At least we have always thought so. Personally we never had much faith in the combination—and future events have not strengthened it.... A Scirce of the Knights of Temperance came off lately at London, C. W. It seems a Mr. Brough, a clergyman of the church of England, took prominent part in favor of temperance at the meeting, and it was well attended.... A new paper called the Despatch is just started in St. Thomas—by Mr. Hart late of London, C. W. A short time since an address was adopted by the women of Toronto, the particularly meeting held this site. To the et an aniti-slavery meeting held this city, to the women of the United States. A public dinner is to be given by his friends to Mr. Webster of Wellington, late M.P. II BR. CATOR of Newburgh will please understand in answer to his letter of the 18th inst., that all who subscribed for the paper of 1852, and whose term has not yet expired, will receive a sufficient part of the year 1.553 to satisfy the term of their subscription. We have merely turned our semi and tri monthly paper, into a weekly, thus giving our readers more that we originally agreed.

Not exchanging with the Hamilian Canadian, we never examined a copy of it until last week. With its editor we have no personal acquidatance. The Canadian will be found to contain numerous advertisement, small and large, of targers, greeries, and salesses, in which all kinds of intoxicating liquous are temptingly offered to the public its editor and proprietor owns and edits the Spirit of the Age, a paper got up to pull down and discumtenance the license system and drinking usages of society. The same type prints and much of the same matter fills, both papers, is this such an example as Sons with to look upon? If the downfall of the license system be the spirit of the age, the spirit of the age, should be prepared in every way, even at the sacrifice of money received from liquor advertugers to display their precises dreads in the columns of any newspaper, to discountenance the use of intexticating drinks—(Editor Son.)
