PROSPECTUS

OF THE

ILLUSTRATED GUIDE & HANDBOOK

OTTAWA.

It is the intention of the undersigned shortly to issue a work bearing the above title, in which all the public institutions in and around the city—the principal places of business, and many of the private residences of our leading citizens—shall be shown on wood engravings, speed-ly got up, at great expense, for this work. The engravings shall be accompanied by descriptive letter-press matter, from the pens of some of the ablest literation in the city, and will include sketches of the rise, progress, and present magnitude of our great Lumberling establishments, the magnificent stores, and the princely residences with which the city and vicinity abound. Sketches of the early life and business habits of soveral of our most successful business men will also be given, and to those who prefer it, a steel or wood engraved portrait.

and to those who preier it, is beet of a correct of portrait. The work will be of a costly nature, and can only be undertaken upon ample assurances being given of a patronage to ensure success.

To this end agents will, in a few days, wait on the principal business men, to ascertain the extent to which they will be willing to patronize it, and if satisfactory, the work will be commenced at once.

and if satisfactory, the work will be commenced at once.

To those desirous of having their places of business engraven, and published in the Handbook, it may be well to state the terms on which it can be done. It is proposed that the work shall be of a size similar to the Handbook of the Parliamentary Buildings, recently published by Mr. Bureau, and that the engravings shall each fill half a page—the other half to be filled with such matter as the owners may desire.

The Hustrations of wighter residences may occording the such matter as the owners may desire.

the owners may desire.

The illustrations of private residences may occupy a page, ifdesired, and the descriptive portion may extend over any number of pages which their interest may justify.

As a very large edition will be issued, it is hoped that a patronage worthy of the work will be extended.

Parties requiring illustration will be extended.

tended.

Parties requiring illustrations will be expected to furnish photographs to the publishers. When the work is complete, the engravings shall be the property of the advertiser, to be used at any future time he may wish. The work will contain a well executed Map and Plan of the City.

Illustrations and Plan of the City.

Illustrations and Diagrams of the Parliamentary and Departmental Buildings will be given, with ample directions for those having business to transact in connection therewith.

Notice of the leading medical and legal professional gentlemen will be inserted.

Each Advertiser or Patron will be entitled to a number of copies of the work.

All Public Institutions, Churches, &c., will be included in the book; sketches of securery, &c., &c.

STANDARD PERIODICALS

FOR 1870.

REPUBLISHED BY THE LEONARD SCOT PUBLISHING CO., NEW YORK.

Inderprusible to all desirous of being well informed on the great subjects of the day.

1. The Edinburgh Review.

This is the oldest of the series. In its main features it still follows in the path marked out by Brongham, Jeffrey, Sydney Smith, and Lord Holland, its original founders and first contributors.

2. THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW, which commences its 125th volume with the January number, was set on foot as a rival to the EDENBURGIT. It resolutely maintains its opposition in politics, and shows equal vigor in its literary department.

3. THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW

nas just closed its 92nd volume. In point of literary ability this Review is fast rising to a level with its competitors. It is the advocate of political and religious liberalism.

4. THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW,

now in its 51st volume, occupies a very high position in periodical literature. Passing beyond the narrow formalism of schools and parties, it appeals to a wider range of sympathies and a higher integrity of conviction.

5. Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine was commenced 53 years ago. Equalling the Quarterlies in its literary and scientific departments, it has won a wide reputation for the unratives and sketches which onliven its pages.
