SIAM AND LAOS AS SEEN BY OUR AMERICAN MISSIONARIES:—We have received from McGregor and Knight a copy of the above work, one of the late issues of the Presbyterian Board. It consists of a series of thirty chapters by many different authors. It is divided into four parts. Part first is SIAM, divided into seven chapters such as, The Indo Chinese Peninsula;—Sight seeing in Bangkok;—Touring in Siam;—In and about Petchaburee, &c. The second part treats of "Varieties of Siamese Life," as follows, A Siamese Wedding; House keeping in Siam; Child Life in Siam; First Hair Cutting of a young Siamese; Schools of Siam; Holidays in Siam; A Gambling establishment; Siamese Theory and Practice of Medicine, Siamese Customs for the Dying and Dead. Part third consists of historical sketches, and Part fourth gives pen pictures of life and work in Laos. The book is a neat and goodly volume of five hundred and fifty pages, beautifully printed in clear type on excellent paper. It is most profusely illustrated, having over sixty illustrations many of them occupying a full page. It is written chiefly by Missionaries who have resided in the country and is a series of pen pictures, giving in vivid detail sketches of the history of the country and people, their customs, and superstitions, social, civil, and religious, the history and work of missions in Siam and Laos and much valuable information relative to the country and people. It is an excellent work, at once interesting and instructive. Sold by McGregor & Knight, Halifax. Price $1.35.

HOME WHISPERS:—A neat vol. of 270 pages by Rev. Henry A. Nelson D. D. price one dollar, is an issue of the Presbyterian Board, sold by McGregor and Knight; that we would like to see in every Presbyterian home throughout our land, and there is no home where it would not be worth manifold its price if read and studied. It is not by any one author but is a series of short but pointed and valuable essays on the different subjects treated. Some idea of its character may be formed from the following titles of some of the chapters.—Home, the Hallowing of Home, Family Worship, Family Government, the Relation of Domestic virtues to Public Virtue, Gods relation to mothers, the Salvation of Infants, Infant church membership, Little Communicants, Bring the Children, Filial Trust, Conviction of Sin, A Calm Conversion, The Lords Martyrs, Answers to Prayer, "Unanswered Prayer," Moving Mountains, Writing to God, &c. Such are the titles of its forty-nine chapters.
