

Attention is called to a large card, which is hung near the west end of the Church. It is a table of the offerings by envelope, from Sunday to Sunday, showing the amount paid by each contributor opposite his proper number. By this means any one can see at a glance what, if any, arrears there may be, and what his financial position is in relation to the Church.

A THOUGHT FOR THE NEW YEAR.

The ship looks forward fearlessly to the new ocean with its new stars and new winds, for the same captain will sail her there who has sailed her here; and the fact that he will sail her there otherwise than he sails her here will only be the sign of how sleepless and watchful is his care.
