

speech to the club. We grew pale on hearing it. Vergniaud said—
 "It is in the name of the king, to avenge the king's dignity, and to come to his assistance, that French princes have raised the courts of Europe against us; that the treaty of Pillnitz has been signed; that Austria and Prussia have taken up arms. All those evils which they are exerting themselves to heap on our heads, all those which we have to dread, it is the name of the king only which is the pretence or the cause of them."
