

Walls and woodwork, white or cream; rugs oriental; pictures, reproductions of water colors, preferably eighteenth century subjects; hangings, brown curtains with a blue pattern

A SHERATON DINING ROOM SUITE

By the Toronto Furniture Co., Limited

"Many a thing divinely done by Chippendale and Sheraton."—Andrew Lang.

PEAKING of a noted American artist, a certain critic declared that he was successful because he knew what to leave out. The same thing with equal truth may be said of Sheraton and his work. Imbued with a strong sense of the practical, he made furniture so severely plain as to be almost devoid of ornament. Yet on account of rather than despite its Puritan simplicity and clear frankness of line and contour, it possesses an irresistible charm and staunch serviceability that it makes it eminently suited to the requirements of the modern home. Not the least of the pleasure one derives in contemplating this Sheraton suite is due to the knowledge that its price is no higher than that demanded for ordinary furniture, lacking its fine grace and distinction. For the simplicity which makes the Sheraton design so charming is also a factor in its low cost, thus uniting with its other virtues that of economy.

Our handsome booklet on Period Furniture will be mailed to you postpaid for 25c. in stamps or silver
The Toronto Furniture Company, Limited, 163-187 Dufferin Street, Toronto, Ontario, Canada.