HOFFMAN'S KINDERGARTEN GIFTS.

By HEINRICH HOFFMAN, a pupil of Froebel.

This little book gives a description of the first six "gifts" devised by Froebel and an explanation of their use and the facilities they are intended to develop. It is illustrated where necessary and a good idea can be gained of the working principle of the Kindergarten from it. Many of these gifts can be used in the primary school for busy work by the ingenious teacher. Every teacher of primary grades, and of course every kindergarten teacher should read this book, and every teacher will find its ideas valuable.

Price 15 cents, postpaid.
