

Department of External Affairs
Ottawa

The Bureau of United Nations Affairs (UNA) is charged primarily with the management of Canadian policy with respect to the activities of the United Nations system of organizations. It is a basic premise of Canadian policy to continue actively to strengthen the United Nations system as an effective instrument for international cooperation and, in particular, to improve the capacity of the United Nations Charter responsibilities. In pursuing these objectives, the UNA works closely with other departments and government departments and agencies, and maintains the liaison with the Secretary-General of the United Nations.

PART III

APPENDICES

The UNA is responsible for the general management of Canadian policy in the United Nations system. It is also responsible for assisting the political and administrative staff of the United Nations Secretariat, the General Assembly and other United Nations organs, and coordinating Canadian policy and activities in those areas. The UNA also provides technical assistance to other United Nations organs and to the Secretary-General. The UNA is also responsible for the administration of the United Nations Trust Fund for the Middle East, the United Nations Trust Fund for the Victims of the Holocaust, and the United Nations Trust Fund for the Victims of the 1956 Suez Crisis. The UNA is also responsible for the administration of the United Nations Trust Fund for the Victims of the 1956 Suez Crisis. The UNA is also responsible for the administration of the United Nations Trust Fund for the Victims of the 1956 Suez Crisis.
