

Chapter 1: Roles and Responsibilities

Composition

There is a separate ARC for each level of the FS/EX occupational groups within each stream. The ARCs comprise two to three members who are at least one classification level higher than the level being reviewed and are representative of the employee's stream. All members of the ARC are required to have at least a C-level reading ability in their second language.