Korea	Canada contributes to the UN Command Military Armistice Commission (UNCMAC), established in 1953.
Middle East	In 1954, Canada joined the UN Truce Supervision Operation (UNTSO), which was established in 1948 to supervise the cease-fire and the general armistice between Israel and Egypt, and between Israel and Lebanon-Syria.
Cyprus	The UN Peacekeeping Force In Cyprus (UNFICYP) was established in 1964 to maintain law and order. Canada currently provides two military personnel to UNFICYP headquarters. This mission is financed by contributions from Greece, Turkey and the United Kingdom.
Syria (Golan)	In 1974 the UN Disengagement Observer Force (UNDOF) was established to supervise the cease-fire and the redeployment of Israeli and Syrian forces. The Canadian contingent to UNDOF provides logistical, technical and communications support.
Sinai	A non-UN mission, Multinational Force and Observers (MFO) monitors adherence to the 1979 Camp David Accord, a tripartite agreement among Egypt, Israel and the United States. Canada has participated in MFO since 1986.
Iraq, Kuwait	Since April 1991, a Canadian team of military observers has served with the UN Iraq-Kuwait Observer Mission (UNIKOM), stationed in the demilitarized zone on the Iraq-Kuwait border.
