MAY IT PLEASE YOUR ROYAL HIGHNESS:

We, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the House of Commons of Canada in Parliament assembled, beg leave to offer our humble thanks to Your Royal Highness for the gracious Speech which Your Royal Highness has addressed to both Houses of Parliament.

And the proposed motion of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in amendment thereto,—That the said motion be amended, by adding to the proposed Address to His Royal Highness the Governor General the following words:—

“We beg to represent to Your Royal Highness that in the elections of Macdonald and Richelieu, there were practices calculated to terrorise and corrupt the electorate which were connived at by Your Ministers, and which deserve the censure of this House.”

The House divided; and the names being called for, they were taken down, as follow:—
