Mr. Bolton moved to place Indian corn when used for purposes other than distilling, on the free list. He said that large quantities of the article were used in this Province, the tax on which would come upon the poor.

Mr. Mackenzie called on the members to support this amendment. Indian corn was largely imported into Ontario for other than distillery purposes.

Mr. Stephenson said that if the duty were increased instead of knocked off it would suit his constituency better. The Upper Province produced quite enough corn to supply Nova Scotia.

The amendment was lost.—Yeas, 50; nays, 73.

M. Bolton propose que le maïs non destiné à la distillerie apparaisse sur la liste des produits en franchise. Il dit qu'on utilise ce produit en grande quantité dans le Haut-Canada et que ce sont les indigents qui auraient à assumer le fardeau d'une taxe.

M. Mackenzie demande aux députés d'appuyer l'amendement, car l'Ontario importe une quantité considérable de maïs non aux fins de distillerie.

M. Stephenson soutient que les membres de son comté préféreraient une majoration du droit à une exonération. Le Haut-Canada produit suffisamment de maïs pour approvisionner la Nouvelle-Écosse.

L'amendement est rejeté par 73 voix contre 50.
