

Canadian Pulp Industry to make the Bill a centre of literature study and research is of the utmost importance and interest.
There is a vast field of work to be covered; Canada is the country in which it ought to be done and,
through your efforts, the Bill is the place where it is going to be done. My only surprise is that your academic neighbors on the
