

July 18, 1931.

J. Patterson, Esq., Director,
Metereological Service of Canada,
Toronto, 5, Ontario.

Your file No. 873.

Dear Mr. Patterson,

I am in receipt of your letter of July 17th, and let me say in reply that I am sincerely sorry that any officer of this University should be so casual as to neglect to answer an official letter and attend to business promptly. Professor Kelly, I find, is out of town until next week, but immediately on his return I shall see that this matter receives prompt attention.

Yours faithfully,

Principal