

-5-4-

A list of students on whom the degree of M.A. has been conferred, 1923-1930, is appended. The list gives briefly a statement of the subsequent career and the present occupation of each.

1923

Winifred L. Birkett, (McGill); Montreal; now in Montreal.

Submitted by the Department of English.

Charles F. Davis, (McGill); St. John's, Newfoundland; now a Minister in the United Church of Canada;

(Signed) Cyrus Macmillan.

E. D. McCrear, (McGill); Montreal; later awarded a Quebec Government

Chairman.

Travelling Scholarship - studied at the Sorbonne,

Paris, two years. Now on the Secretarial staff of the League of Nations, Geneva.

Wale H. Moore, (McGill); Fredericton, N.B. B.A. of the Montreal

Co-operating Theological Colleges; later awarded the Travelling Fellowship of Theological Colleges - studied one year at Oxford. Now on the staff of the University of Michigan.

Margaret Pichel, (McGill); Cowansville, Que. Assistant to the Warden,

Royal Victoria College, and Assistant in English,

two years. Later awarded Mayne Scholarship - studied one year at Oxford and Berlin. Later awarded Fellowship at Columbia University. Now

Lecturer in English and Secretary of the Extension

Department, Columbia University, New York.

1924

Richard C. Harris, (McGill); New Haven, C.C. now teaching in British Columbia.