

- Art. 3. If intended for sale, the duties shall be paid either in money, or at the periods prescribed in article of the Laws of Importation ; but the payment shall be considered due only from the day of delivery of the goods from the Custom-house. If intended for re-exportation, either to other ports of the Republic, or to foreign ports, they shall not pay importation duty at the port of bonding ; but if introduced into any other part of the Republic, they shall there pay the regular duties prescribed by the Law.
- Art. 4. All goods and merchandise bonded in any of the ports nominated in this decree, shall be subject to a duty of 4 per cent per annum on the invoice value, reckoning from the day of entry to the day of delivery, whether for sale or re-exportation. This duty shall be paid at the time of removal of the goods from the Custom-house.
- Art. 5. The owner or consignee shall present the Invoice and Bill of Lading of the goods and merchandise bonded, according to the regulations of the Importation Law of the 8th of March, 1816.
- Art. 6. When the goods and merchandise bonded shall be withdrawn for the purpose of re-exportation to any port of the Republic, the director of the Customs shall furnish the owner or consignee with a copy of the Invoice, noting therein that the said goods have not paid the importation duty.
- Art. 7. The Executive shall prescribe the necessary forms and regulations to be observed at the Custom-houses in carrying the provisions of this decree into full effect.
- Art. 8. Upon such goods and merchandise as shall be transported across the Isthmus of Panama, from the Atlantic
