Ever See Men's Suits Like These for $15.00?

When a man speaks of a fifteen-dollar suit of clothes, either made-to-measure or ready-to-wear, he never pictures to himself such suits as these. They're all made of fine English worsteds and tweeds, with many small narrow stripe patterns. Just a few of any one line, but taken as a whole, all sizes are included. Carefully tailored in good-fitting single-breasted saque style, in the newest cut. A few were $18.00, but most of them over $20.00; seventeen of them were $24.00, and half a dozen $28.00 and $26.50. All on sale Thursday at $15.00

Men's $3.00 to $5.00 Trousers at $2.49

A manufacturer's clearance and broken and odd lines from our regular stock. Included in the lot are English worsted trousers, many good shades and patterns in greys, including a few pairs of plain shepherd check in black and white. All have five pockets and belt straps. Sizes 32 to 44. To clear 2.49

Advance Styles in Serge Dresses at $10.00

So much that is radically different from last season's fashions is embodied in these new dresses, that women will want to discard the dresses they have on hand as soon as they see these. They are very reasonably priced at ten dollars for Thursday. Made from extra fine quality French and English serges, in black, navy, sand and marine blue. One particularly attractive style is cut with a wide flare skirt; waist buttoned down front, with peplum at back coming down to the hips. It is handsomely braided and has high military collar. Another youthful style is made with bodice and sleeves of silk with overdress of serge. It is buttoned down both sides and has belt above waistline to give Empire effect. Value $15.00, some as high as $20.00. Thursday 10.00

EXCEPTIONAL SKIRTS AT $4.95
