

11.—Any member wishing to address the meeting must rise, and if more than one rise at the same time the President shall decide which has the floor, and the others speak next in order.

12.—During the reading of the minutes, reports, communications or other papers, and when a member is addressing the Local, silence shall be observed, and no one shall be allowed to retire or otherwise disturb the meeting.

13.—No member shall interrupt another member when speaking, except to rise to a point of order, which shall be definitely stated and the President shall decide it without debate. If a member, while speaking, be called to order, he shall at the request of the President, take his seat until the question is determined, when, if permitted, he may proceed.

14.—Any member who shall refuse obedience to the President shall be admonished by that officer, and if he offend again at the same meeting he shall be expelled from the room, and afterwards dealt with as the Local may decide.

15.—Each speaker on any question shall be allowed five minutes, and no member shall speak more than twice on the same question, except by consent of the President.

16.—The President shall not be allowed to speak on any subject while in the discharge
