

course, Toronto University, son of J. C. Lander, druggist, Toronto.

Form V.—R. C. Wilson, of Cumberland, Ont., now in his second year Toronto University

Form IV., B.—John Harmer, son of Robert Harmer, of Massey Man'g Co., Toronto, now in business with E. Gurney & Co.

Form IV., A.—Not awarded.

Upper Commercial—R. A. Whitney, son of Albert Whitney, now in a bank, of Prescott.

Lower Commercial—D. E. Wright, son of John Wright, of Walker house, Toronto.

1893.

Form VI.—A. B. Watt, now in his second year in Arts, Toronto University, son of Sheriff Watt, of Brantford.

Form V.—C. H. Bradburn, son of T. E. Bradburn, of Peterboro.

Form IV., B.—J. S. Macdonnell, son of Rev. D. J. Macdonnell, of Toronto.

Form IV., A.—W. A. R. Kerr, son of T. Kerr, of Rosedale.

Form, Upper Commercial—N. F. Wilson, of Cumberland, Ont.

Form, Lower Commercial—E. H. Ridgley, of Detroit, Mich., now in the hardware business in Detroit.

Form III B.—E. G. Weir, son of James Weir, merchant, Yonge street, Toronto.

Form III A.—W. O. Watson, son of John Watson, of Lalley, Watson & Co., Toronto.

Form II, B.—Not awarded.

Form II, A.—Not awarded.

Form I.—A. G. Lang, son of J. W. Lang, wholesale merchant, Toronto.

1894.

Form VI.—George Selwyn Holmsted (81 p c), son of G. S. Holmsted, Registrar High Court of Justice, Osgoode Hall.

Form V.—H. T. Burton, prize, (72 p c), son of Mr. J. Burton, general freight agent of the G. T. R., Montreal, and W. A. R. Kerr, son of T. Kerr, of Rosedale. As these boys come within one per cent of being equal, the examiner recommends that a prize be given to each.

Form IV. B.—G. F. Moss, son of Chas. Moss, Q.C. "An excellent paper."—Examiner.

Form IV. A.—R. H. Parmenter, prize, son of Mrs Charles L. Parmenter, formerly of Gananoque, and now of 235 Sherbourne street.

Form Upper Commercial—G. R. Good son of James Good, of Rosedale.

Form Lower Commercial—James Goldie son of D. Goldie, of Ayr.

Form III. B.—Logie Macdonnell, son of Rev. D. J. Macdonnell.

Form III. A.—H. H. Lynch (79 p.c.) son of the late J. A. Lynch, of Saltillo, Mexico. "One of the finest papers I ever read."—Examiner.

Form II—H. E. Roaf, son of James R. Roaf, barrister, Toronto.

Form I.—J. J. Creelman, son of Adam Creelman, Q.C.

In Form IV. B—H. Cluthe, son of C. Cluthe, King street, city, came second.

In the Upper Commercial, W. B. Mickleboro, son of W. Mickleboro, merchant, of St. Thomas, came second, and in the Lower Commercial R. Wilkie, son of A. C. G. Wilkie, of Cecil street, came second.

In Form III. B.—E. J. Dobie, son of W. C. Dobie, Police Magistrate, Port Arthur.

In Form III—A., G. B. Watson, son of Mrs. Watson, of Wellesley street, was second, and in form II. C. J. Lynch, a brother of H. H. Lynch, of Saltillo, Mexico, was second.

In Form I—J. J. Creelman had a capital paper. For a little fellow he made a gallant attempt at every question. Arthur Durie, son of Mrs. Durie, Spadina road, was second.

The examiner was who is unconnected with the College.