INDEPENDENCE, Mo., Feb. 10.—
Richard Hill, leader of the "Church of Christ." commonly known as the "Hedrickite" branch of the Mormon Church, died at his home here to-day. As leader of the sect Hill was guard-inchief of the famous "Temple Lot" here, which was set apart more than 75 years ago by Joseph Smith, original prophet and founder of the Mormon Church, as the site of a future great temple of the Lord.

The "Temple Lot" passed into Gentile hands, from which it was again obtained by the sub-sect. Hill succeeded Hedrick. He was born in Gloucester, England, in 1827.
