Somebody was asked what pieces of literature he would choose as his cool to have a marked effect in the formation, in case he were cast on a desert island. He replied—we are trusting to memory—that he would prefer the Bible because it was the most interesting book, and the works of Plato, because you never could get thru with them. In the first and seven the works of Plato, because you never could get thru with them. In the first and second judgments most of us will concur; the third contains an idea that we should like to impress upon the head of the church.

Washington, Aug. 4.—George M. Long of Canada, after cutting the throat of Norah Adams, said to be engaged to him, cut his own throat at No. 1106

July 31 in latitude 43.29, long. 43.48, It was a heavy spar, covered with barnacles and standing upright, about 9 feet projecting above the surface of the water. It was apparently attached to a submerged wreck. The next day a large log 50 feet long and 2 feet square was passed. This was also a dangerous obstruction to navigation. Among the passengers on the Carpathia were about 30 members of the Salvation Army, three of them being members of the Booth-Tucker family.

Washington, Aug. 4.—George M. Long of Canada, after cutting the throat of Norah Adams, said to be engaged to him, cut his own throat at No. 1106 Fourth-street, S. E., this city, at 7 o'clock this evening. A little girl who saw the deed says they were quarreling; that the man was jealous and slashed the throat of the woman, who fied to the woodshed. Long followed her, and seeing her about to die, cut his own throat and fell on her body.

Passed Dangerous Obstructions.
New York, Aug. 4.—The Cunard Line steamer Carpathla, which arrived today, passed a dangerous derelict on July 31 in latitude 43.29, long. 43.48, It was a heavy spar, covered with bar-
