

WOMAN: As She Appears for the Public Eye in the News of the Day

Attractive "Grads."

At the opening of the box office at the Princess Theatre for the sale of tickets for the mammoth musical extravaganza of college life, Professor Napoleon, a large crowd were on hand. The spectacle is to be presented on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, with a special matinee on Saturday, the proceeds to be devoted to the Western Hospital. Crowded houses are assured. Many yesterday secured as many as ten seats for themselves and friends.

About 400 of the now famous 729 performers were photographed Saturday, and as many of them went from the rehearsals to the studio in full dress they created considerable excitement. The old alumni, with their hair and colonial costumes; the Buster Brown boys and Mary Jane girls, and the witches and sprites were particularly in evidence. Souvenir postcards of "Professor Napoleon" have already made their appearance.

Two of the groups that will win much approbation are the "Graduates and Seniors," who have some of the catchiest music of the production. These parts are held by Miss Pinkerton, Gertrude I. Boush, Mabel White, Viola Ferguson, Coy MacDonald, Mable B. Homer, Marie Mitchell, Beatrice Holgate, Edith M. Pierce, Ethel Anderson, Irene Case, Betty Lowden, J. H. Brown, J. E. McMurrich, M. G. McMurrich, Vera, Belton, Pearl Hamilton, E. Madge McConnell, Marjorie Sewell, Ethel McConnell, Percy Joffe, R. S. Pentecost, D. Graham McIntosh, W. H. Walker, Harold W. Ball, J. E. Lawrence, Harold A. Greene, R. Sidney Woollett, Ern Evans, Walter N. Nugent, L. M. Rathbun, Bev Brown, D. H. Buchanan, Frank L. Barber, W. G. Tingle, J. Wilson, Charles G. Henderson, Allan Morley.

Pure Water Campaign.

Prof. Amyot of the provincial board of health gave a very lucid description of filter beds and filtration to the local council of the National Council of Women in the medical building, Queen's Park, yesterday afternoon, in the interests of the bylaw for a filtration plant in this city, which is to be submitted to the citizens on June 27. Dean Reeve was chairman, and about seventy ladies attended.

Ex-Ald. Davies, who claims to be the originator of a scheme to supply pure water, wanted to know why the people did not want to hear of some other method besides filtration, as he had one which would clean the water in one-third the time and was less expensive.

Mrs. Grasset wanted to know why Mr. Davies had not brought out his idea sooner, and the gentleman retorted that he had, but the board of control "turned him down" because he wanted 5 per cent. of the difference in cost of the two methods.

To prevent a lengthy discussion the chairman announced that there would be a meeting in the same place to-day and that he could attend that. President Falconer, Controller Harrison, Mr. Freysang of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, Commissioner of Industries Thompson, and R. Home Smith spoke in favor of filtration.

On Friday at Oddfellows' Hall, Broadview-avenue, there will be a meeting in the interests of the filtration bylaw.

Toronto World's Beauty Patterns

No. 657 Dainty Lingerie

All designs in underwear that tend to increase the flare at the lower edge while keeping a smooth, close fit about the waist, are much in vogue. A pleasing mode of this order is here illustrated. The corset cover is made with the front fullness gathered to a round yoke, which affords a good place for a simple design in hand embroidery. The drawers are cut on excellent lines, and being circular in shape, provide the necessary fullness without extra bulk. French cambric, with lace, hand embroidery and ribbon-run heading is represented, but several materials such as nainsook, lawn, and longcloth are adaptable, and any preferred mode of decoration may be used. For 38 inches bust measure 1-1/8 yards of 36-inch material will be required for the corset cover, and 2-1/2 yards for the drawers.

Ladies' Corset Cover, No. 657. Sizes for 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust measure.

WOMAN SUES BROKERS

And They Sue Her—A Deal in L. & N. in Court.

Miss R. A. Clark is suing Cummings & Co., stock brokers, for $1500, paid for L. & N. stock. She claims the shares were purchased only as per "buckethead" methods.

Having telephoned Jan. 10, 1907, for a quotation on the stock, she was informed next day the purchase had been made. She denied having authorized it, but paid $500 when they threatened to sue. Then Mr. Cummings had promised to protect her stock. One day she was "sold out" at a loss without warning.

Cummings & Co. counter-suit for $600. Justice Latchford is hearing both suits in the non-jury session.

Mr. Cummings said the order had been sent to his principals, Campbell & Co. of Cincinnati, but disclaimed knowledge of the members of the firm.

Miss Clark admitted previous litigation with other brokers.

CONFERENCE REGRETS EARL'S VISIT TO RACES

Enforcement of Anti-Gambling Laws Insisted on—Condemnation of Tobacco Habit, Too.

"We deplore the widespread vice of gambling and especially the encouragement given to it in connection with horse racing. We regret that the demoralizing institution at the Woodbine is opened semi-annually under the patronage of His Majesty's representative, the governor-general. While conceding him the right to regulate his own private conduct, yet we feel that one who occupies such a position should not lend his influence to aid an enterprise so vicious in its tendencies."

This bouquet was handed his excellency by the Toronto Methodist conference yesterday afternoon in a clause in the report of the committee on temperance and moral reform, added by direct instruction of the conference.

"We insist on a righteous interpretation and enforcement of the law against gambling everywhere," the report continued, "and such amendment to the criminal code as will facilitate the prevention and prosecution of all betting, especially in connection with horse racing, either on race tracks or at any other place, public or private. Whether the parties are standing, sitting or walking about, and that a copy of this recommendation be sent to the Dominion premier, minister of justice and leader of the opposition."

The governor-general seems to think he is in honor bound to open these races," declared Dr. Henry Hough, "and the newspapers seem to think that they are the property of the Woodbine combination during the two weeks."

Tobacco Condemned, Too. The committee further expressed "its strong condemnation of the filthy and injurious tobacco habit. We feel that smoking in public places is as offensive to ladies and to other non-users of the weed that it should be prohibited by law, and we call upon all professing Christians to abstain from its use as an example to the young."

The committee also deplored the use of profanity, and called attention to the fact that it is contrary to law, asking church members to use their influence to have the law enforced.

Again, "while gladly and gratefully recognizing the good work done by the provincial license department in the enforcement of law, especially in local option districts," the committee regretted that "reliable information of gross neglect of duty by local license inspectors producing, naturally open disregard of the law in several ridings."

The committee recommended the extension as far as possible of local option; secondly, the largest measure of provincial prohibition possible, and finally, complete national prohibition.

That Chancellor Burwash had been asked to give the English oration at the Quebec tercentenary, was the interesting announcement made by Rev. Prof. Wallace, in presenting the report of Victoria College. The chancellor himself was absent on account of illness. The total assets were $1,085,214, while expenditures and receipts balanced at about $85,000.

An interesting feature of the day was the introduction of Chief Big Canoe, an Ojibway from Georgian Bay. He is a local preacher of the Methodist Church, of which he has been a member for 60 years. Rev. David Meno, of the same tribe, one of the youngest members of the conference, was then asked to lead in prayer for the Indian race.
