TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 1, 1910.

THE FORESTERS' CHIEFTAIN.

Out of the hundred columns of newspaper record of the great libel suit just concluded, whether any light has been shed to change the opinions of the ordinary politician respecting either plaintiff or defendant, one thing has certainly transpired, and that is the splendid and characteristic behavior of Mr. Elliott Stevenson, su-Order of Foresters. Those who follow the evidence in the case will find that it is very far from conveying the whole of the truth, with which of course the learned judge son's intimate familiarity with the intricate and complex affairs of the great order of which he is the head, was displayed in a masterly way thruout the long examinations to which he was subjected. His grasp of the situation, his memory for facts, carried into the strictest detail, his comprehension of the vast business rami fication whose evolution he directs, and above all, the qualities to which Justice Magee called attention, his impartiality and his high standard of honor and probity, combine to distinguish him as one of the great commercial factors in our business community.

Comment on Foster Verdict.

"Vindicated By His Peers." Mail and Empire: * * * Briefly put, the verdict is a vindication of Mr. Foster, coupled with an acceptance of the argument presented in extenu-ation of the offence of the defendant in attacking Mr. Foster as he did. Mr. Foster is to be congratulated upon the fact that a jury of his countrymen has branded as untrue the stories his traducer has so diligently circulated against him. This, it is interesting to remember, is the second time the defendant has received a rebuff on this particular matter.

Meaning of the Verdict.

Toronto Star: Without discussing the personal or party aspects of the Foster-Macdonald verdict, it is a mat-ter of public importance that a strict should be taken of the obligations of trusteeship, and of the hand-ling of trust funds. Mr. Justice Magee's declaration against the acceptance of commissions from more than one party to a transaction is also of practical interest and of farreaching importance. * * * These observations are as applicable to public as to private transactions, and the principle laid down by the judge is the one sound basis for the transaction of public and private business.

Mr. Foster's Position.

Toronto News: It is something to have the opinion that Mr. Foster acted in good faith. This surely would have been the sounder defence for Mr. Foster from the beginning. He was not alone in the financial enterprises for which he has been condemned. But it happens that he is the only one of those interested who holds a seat in parliament. It is clear that what he did as a private citizen and as manager of a trust company he could not properly have done as finance minister of Canada. This is the aspect which obtrudes itself upon public attention, and it is right that it should be so. Nor is the situation for Mr. Foster greatly improved by the reflection that these who attackMr. Asquith still says budget first. ed him so fiercely would have defended him with equal vigor if he had belonged to the Liberal party.

Foster Verdict Was Just.

Evening Telegram: * * * the Conservative jurors trod the plain path of duty. They, in common with the jurors who were Liberal partisans, were not called upon to judge The Globe's notorious tendency to "swallow camels" in the procedure of its party friends and "strain at gnats" in the conduct of Hon. Geo. E. Foster. cate the liberty of the press and to their own conduct free from material for criticism. * * * The worst fault charged against George E. Foster has been duplicated over and over again in the annals of Canadian finance. But the fault charged against Mr. Foster is not and never was a virtue It would have been a public misfor-tune if a jury had called evil good, at the bidding of a partisan preju-dice, or outraged the liberty of the press by protecting Mr. Foster against the criticism which he has invited by his own mistakes.

Foster Again Vindicated.

LONDON FREE PRESS-The verdict in the Foster-Macdonald libel ac-tion is a distinct vindication of the Alfred J. Haggett was committed for honor and integrity of Hon. Geo. E. trial in police court yesterday morning Foster, the plaintiff.
