SEMAPHORE AGAINST HIM But Engineer Kept Ahead and Fatal Wreck Resulted.

BELLEVILLE, Aug. 30.-Before Dr. Yeomans, coroner, an inquest was commenced this evening into the accident at the G. T. R. station here last Saturday, whereby Peter Young, a G. T. R. engineer, and Edward Brewster, a car inspector, met their death thru a light engine being struck by a westbound emigrant special. The enquiry was adjourned until Wednesday. It was clearly brought out that the emaphore at the central switch shanty, near where the accident occurred, was set at danger and against the incoming special. The engineer evidently did not see the signal

One of the witnesses testified that, in conversation with Weir, engineer on the special, after the accident, Weir admitted it was a serious affair and might mean penitentiary for him Late to-night, in the east end of the G. T. R. yards, an unknown man was beheaded by a freight. It is supposed the victim was stealing a ride.
