

War News Summary From Last Night's Cables

Petrograd, Oct. 28, via London, Oct. 29.—An official communication issued this evening goes more extensively into the bombardment of Varna by Russian warships and the attack by German submarines against the Russian squadron than the communication issued by the war office. The communication says:

"Our Black Sea fleet bombarded Varna with heavy guns for about an hour, while hydroplanes dropped bombs. The harbor works, sheds and coast batteries were damaged but the town itself was not hit."

"During the bombardment the Russian fleet was attacked by German submarines which were driven off without our suffering any loss. During the day our wireless station recorded a telegram from the German station at Constantinople asserting that a German submarine attack had resulted in seriously damaging a Russian battleship of the Pantelimon type."

"This statement is one of the usual German lies which is proved by the fact that our fleet returned to Sebastopol without sustaining the least damage."

"The driving off of the submarines failed to interfere with the bombardment because the submarine attack was repulsed by smaller guns, while the main armament continued to fire on the coasts."

"After the bombardment the fleet steamed across the bay in front of the town and then headed for Sebastopol."

"Our aviators dropped twenty-one bombs in the vicinity of the harbor. They were subjected to a terrific fire, but none of them was hit and all returned safely."

London, Oct. 28.—Outside of the German official statement, which records the advance of the Austro-German forces and the capture by the Bulgarians of Zlatar and Kojasjewa, both on the Timok river northeast of Nish, and the heights of Piro, almost directly east of Nish, there is little or no authentic news of the invasion of Serbia.

For the moment, the danger spot for the Serbians is the northeast corner, where they are being attacked from three sides, and must eventually fall back toward the southwest. Thus far they have been retreating in good order, and despite the seriousness of the situation, optimism prevails in Serbian quarters in London, which are probably best able to judge of the assistance being sent by France, Great Britain and Russia.

The French, according to German despatches, have already landed 150,000 men, with one hundred guns, at Saloniki. While the whereabouts of the British reinforcements remains a secret, that they are of considerable size may be judged from the fact that, although General Sir Charles C. Monro, recently appointed to command the Gallipoli peninsula operations, is already on the spot, the government has decided to send Major General Sir Bryan T. Mahon, who commanded the column which relieved Mafeking in the South African war, to cooperate with the French.

Great anxiety exists as to the attitude of Greece. It is known that Austria, Germany and Bulgaria have seriously complained of the continued hospitality shown the Allies at Saloniki, and one account goes so far as to say that the Greek government has asked the Allies to leave Greek territory.

Against this is the quoted assurance given by the Greek minister at Paris to the French government that Greece has no intention of committing any hostile act toward the Allied troops.

The Italian soldiers assert, with pride, that they are now reaping the benefit of a systematic destruction of the Austrian observation points on the mountain peaks, mastered after fierce struggles during the past month, and the lack of which, they say, has greatly decreased the accuracy of the aim of the Austrians. The men say that six months of warfare has enabled them to understand the tricks of their opponents.

London, Oct. 28.—Except around Riga and Drinsk, where the Germans are renewing their efforts to reach the Dvina river, and near Castrortary, on the Stry, there has been no heavy fighting in the Russian arena.

Engagements on a small scale have taken place west of Riga, showing that the Germans are attacking in a new direction. Hitherto their main attacks have been from the south and southwest of that city, where they were checked.

Paris, Oct. 28.—The official communication issued by the war office tonight is as follows:

"Artillery actions, particularly interesting and prolonged are reported in Belgium on the Het Sas-Steenstraete front, as well as to the north of Arras, in the Botsen Hache and in the region of Rodincourt."

"The enemy directed in Champagne a violent bombardment against our positions. On Oct. 27—An emphatic denial that Great Britain was engaged in any peace negotiations, direct or indirect, was made by David Lloyd George, the minister of munitions, in reply to a question in the house of commons today."

Mr. Lloyd George continued:

"We shall not think of entering any peace negotiations except in common with our allies according to the agreement made in September, 1914."

London, Oct. 28.—Sir Bryan Thomas Mahon has taken command of the British forces in Serbia. This announcement was made in the house of commons this afternoon by Harold J. Tennant, parliamentary under-secretary for war.

Major-General Sir Bryan Thomas Mahon was born at Belleville, county Galway, Ireland, on April 2, 1853. He began his military career in the 8th Hussars in 1880, and later fought with great distinction in India, Egypt and South Africa.

In relieving Mafeking, Lieutenant-General Sir Bryan Thomas Mahon caused greater joy in England than did any other single event of the war. It was stoutly defended against the Boers for seven months by a small force.

Three More In The 26th List

Ottawa, Oct. 28.—In the casualty lists published today, Sergeant G. S. Wootton, of England, member of the 6th battalion, was reported accidentally killed; Lance-Corporal Clarence Bishop, of England, of the 26th, was reported wounded, but again on duty; and James Frederick Hildebrand, of Chatham (N. B.), of the same unit, was listed as slightly wounded.

In the 26th battalion, Sergeant Howard Everett Logan, 8 York street, Halifax, was reported killed in action, and there were several other casualties. The 9 o'clock casualty list follows:

EFFECTIVE DISPLAY.

A window display of striking and appropriate interest attracted attention in King street yesterday afternoon to M. R. A's Limited. One of the windows was devoted to a scheme to aid recruiting.

This was very effective, indeed, but beyond the assistance it gave the recruiting campaign, it furnished very cleverly a conception of the contrast between the soldier of New Brunswick's famous 104th in the war of 1812 and the khaki soldier of today.

The achievements of that gallant battalion were published on placards and ideals were established for the regiment of Lieutenant-Colonel George W. Fowler—the new 104th. On one side of the window a dummy soldier was attired in the uniform of 1812 and on the other side a modern khaki soldier. Placards bore the names of the officers of the famous regiment which marched in the dead of winter from Fredericton to Quebec and incidents recorded about the regiment were stated on cards. One of the most effective parts of the display was a card bearing simply the words: "Sofia, Constantinople, Vienna, Berlin." Just enough to make every man wish he were young and free.

Do you really know how to shave?

Make this striking test and see.

SO many men do not know how, that this is not intended as a joke. Most men take twice the time necessary and undergo unnecessary torture. A simple test will show whether you are among them.

Shave one side of your face with the preparation you now use. Then shave the other side with Mennen's, following the directions contained with every tube. You will be astounded at the difference—not only in the way your razor acts and how the two sides of your face feel, but in the shorter time it takes you to shave with Mennen's.

The reason is that Mennen's is absolutely different in composition from every other preparation. It took three years' experimenting to perfect it. It requires no "rubbing in"—no relathering—no lotions.

MENNEN'S SHAVING CREAM

MENNEN'S "TALCUM FOR MEN"

Delightful after-shave—natural skin—visible—antiseptic and protective—keeps the skin a bit with the Mennen's.

Send 10c. for Trial Tube

Wrap a dime in a piece of paper, and send it with the coupon for a trial tube of Mennen's to make this striking experiment. With it, we will send, free, a trial can of the Mennen's Talcum for Men, very desirable for after-shaving, because it does not show white on the face. Cut out this coupon now to remind you to write.
