THERE is one important feature

Advertising has made great strides during the last decade. It is now regarded as a science. It has become a necessity in the work of business-building. Scores of large businesses make annual appropriations of millions of dollars, and many are increasing their appropriations because they regard advertising as a sound investment. A firm of famous shoe polish manufacturers, which spent hundreds of thousand of dollars every year in advertising, decided to rest on its laurels and cut out its advertising expense. It failed. Three Kennedy Boys and Fourth tardly Assault

SPRINGHILL, N. S., Dec. 1. What was apparently an attempt at murder startled the town last night when some young men, after beating Chief of Police Geo. L. Smith, fired two shots at him through a window in his house, one of the shots passing dangerously close

The trouble began early in the evening, when three Kennedy boys, Pat, Rod and Clarence, wanted the chief to go to their home to arrest their stepfather, Thomas Marks, but upon finding that the Kennedys were under the influence of liquor, while Marks was apparently sober, he paid no more attention to them. Later, Marks came to the chief's house requesting him to go to arrest the boys for misbehavior but the chief being off duty and Marks being seemingly under alcoholic influence then, the chief did not go.

SEIZE AND BEAT CHIEF

About 10.45 the three Kennedys and another young man came back and when Chief Smith came to the door of his home he was seized by them and dragged out in the yard where he was kicked and beaten with a fence picket. Getting away from them Smith ran indoors and waen reaching up to turn off a light was shot at. Night Officer Charles Atkinson was called to the scene but the men had gone and are not yet caught though them. The fourth assailant though not known last night will in all likelihood be apprehended today as he was seen by parties with these boys. Chief Smith is very badly bruised and beaten his stomach being badly
