

POOR DOCUMENT

M C 2 3 5

THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, AUGUST 13, 1921

SHOPS YOU OUGHT TO KNOW

Designed to Place Before Our Readers the Merchandise, Craftsmanship and Service Offered by Shops and Specialty Stores

AUTO REPAIRING

HAVE YOUR TIRES AND TUBES repaired at The St. John Tire Co., 123 Princess street. Tires and tubes called for and delivered. Special to Hineys. 8055-8-15

THE ST. JOHN SPRING WORKS repair all kinds of auto and carriage springs. All work promptly done. Springs made to order. Ford front springs 44-81-83 Thorne Avenue, Main 1606. 10-8-1921

AUTO STORAGE

WIRED STALLS TO LET. CARS washed, repaired—At Thompson's, 55 Sealey street. Phone 663.

BABY CLOTHING

BABY'S BEAUTIFUL LONG Clothes, daintily made of the finest material; everything required; ten dollars complete. Send for catalogue. Mrs. Walford, 672 Yonge street, Toronto. 11-1-1921

BARGAINS

HOUSE DRESSES, ALL SIZES, light and dark colors, low prices.—At Wetmore's, Garden street.

DYERS

NOTICE TO MOURNERS—FAST black returned in 24 hours. Phone 4700, New System Dry Works.

ENGRAVERS

A. G. PLUMMER, PRODUCER OF Quality Engraving, Wedding Stationery, Cards, Brass Memorials, Signs, Etc. 7 Charlotte St., next to Mary's Millinery.

F. C. WESLEY & CO., ARTISTS and engravers, 59 Water street. Phone 852.

FILMS FINISHED

SEND ANY ROLL OF FILM WITH 50c. to Wasson's, P. O. Box 1343, St. John, N. B., for a set of pictures. Glossy finish. Satisfaction guaranteed.

FURNITURE STORED

FURNITURE STORED IN DRY Warehouse. Percy J. Steel, 311 Main street. 3191-8-19

FURNITURE STORED. APPLY Main 2395. 2908-8-10

HATS BLOCKED

LADIES' STRAW TAGLE AND Panama Hats blocked in the latest style. Mrs. T. B. Jones, 280 Main street, opposite Adelaide street.

HEMSTITCHING

HEMSTITCHING AND POINT Edging promptly done in a clean, airy shop. Work guaranteed.—Singer Sewing Machine Co., 45 Germain St. 2397-8-23

IRON FOUNDRIES

UNION FOUNDRY AND MACHINE Works, Limited. George H. Wainwright, West St. John, N. B. Engineers and Machinists, Iron and Brass Foundry.

JACKSCREWS

JACK-SCREWS FOR HIRE AT REASONABLE rates, per day or otherwise. Smythe street. Phone Main 1584. 2-19-1922

LADIES' TAILORING

HIGH CLASS LADIES' TAILOR, best satisfaction guaranteed at lowest prices.—A. Morin, 50 Germain. 2039-8-23

MAGNETO REPAIRS

RELIABLE MAGNETO REPAIRS BY Bosch expert. F. R. Weatherall, 10 Wentworth street. 2552-8-10

MATTRESS REPAIRING

ALL KINDS OF MATTRESSES AND Cushions made and repaired. Wire Mattresses re-strengthened. Feather beds made into mattress. Upholstering neatly done. 25 years' experience. Walter J. Lamb, 82 Britain street, Main 587. 8-14

MEN'S CLOTHING

MEN'S CLOTHING, OVERCOATS.—We have in stock a fine line Overcoats, well made and trimmed and selling at a low price from $20 up. W. J. Higgins & Co., Custom and Ready-to-wear Clothing, 182 Union street.

MONEY ORDERS

WHEN ORDERING GOODS BY mail send a Dominion Express Money Order.

PAINTS

H. B. BRAND PAINTS, $5.50 TO $4.00 per Gallon. Send for Color Card. Haley Bros., Ltd. 6-8-1922

PHOTOGRAPHIC

DEVELOPING, PRINTING, KODAK Films. Send 42c. with order. Work returns postpaid. Victoria Photo Studio, 44, John

SIR WALTER SCOTT'S 150TH ANNIVERSARY

Halifax Celebration Today in Honor of Event—Gathering of Scots from All Over the Province.

Halifax, N. S., Aug. 13.—(By Canadian Press.)—Scotchmen are gathered together with lovers of literature and sportsmen in Halifax this week-end to celebrate, under the auspices of the North British Society, the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the birth of Sir Walter Scott. The event will be remembered with a revival of the Brae Mar games this afternoon and a literary and musical festival to be held in the largest theatre in the city Monday evening. The celebration of the centenary of Scott by the North British in 1870 was memorable, and the ceremonies of this year promise to be no less worthy of the fame and genius of the great Sir Walter.

Scores of the brawny sons of New Scotland from all parts of New Scotland and from over its borders are here to witness or take part in the sports of their forefathers. "Throwing the hammer, tossing the caber, tugs of war, competitions in playing the pipes and dancing the old wild steps of the glorious Highlander, will be some of the ancient contests revived this afternoon. Included in the membership of the North British Society are a good many of the notables of Nova Scotia and these, with distinguished representatives of similar organizations in Halifax and elsewhere, will be honored guests at the festival on Monday. The North British have been at pains to prepare a programme suited to the importance of the occasion. Sir Walter Scott's songs will be sung and his poems recited. Rev. Dr. Clarence Mackinnon, chaplain of the Nova Scotia Highlanders, is to deliver the oration on the man himself. An original poetic tribute has been presented by Rev. A. L. Fraser, pastor of Park street Presbyterian church, Halifax.

Explaining the object of the celebration to the Canadian Press, Alvin F. Macdonald, president of the society, said: "These three fold purposes in holding this event will be to stimulate interest in the life and works of Scott, to encourage the study of Scottish literature and history and to prepare the way for the establishment of an appropriate permanent memorial which will be an enduring symbol of our attachment to the homeland of our race and our veneration for its heroic figures."

In furtherance of its aims the North British recently erected a bronze statue of Robert Burns on one of the main thoroughfares of the city, and hope shortly to become godfather to a troop of Canadian Boy Scouts "with kilts and feather and a sword." Its history since its foundation in 1768 has been inextricably interwoven with the life of Halifax and Nova Scotia. The society is said to be the oldest of its kind in Canada and the only organization in America which has been continuously in existence for 153 years. On the roster are the names of such distinguished figures in British colonial affairs as Earl of Selkirk, Lord Dalhousie, Lord Falkland, General Sir Colin Campbell and many famous generals and admirals. Four chief justices and two lieutenant-governors have in recent years served as presidents of the organization, and it has had the honor of having had a member of the royal family as its guest.

Explaining the object of the celebration to the Canadian Press, Alvin F. Macdonald, president of the society, said: "These three fold purposes in holding this event will be to stimulate interest in the life and works of Scott, to encourage the study of Scottish literature and history and to prepare the way for the establishment of an appropriate permanent memorial which will be an enduring symbol of our attachment to the homeland of our race and our veneration for its heroic figures."

In furtherance of its aims the North British recently erected a bronze statue of Robert Burns on one of the main thoroughfares of the city, and hope shortly to become godfather to a troop of Canadian Boy Scouts "with kilts and feather and a sword." Its history since its foundation in 1768 has been inextricably interwoven with the life of Halifax and Nova Scotia. The society is said to be the oldest of its kind in Canada and the only organization in America which has been continuously in existence for 153 years. On the roster are the names of such distinguished figures in British colonial affairs as Earl of Selkirk, Lord Dalhousie, Lord Falkland, General Sir Colin Campbell and many famous generals and admirals. Four chief justices and two lieutenant-governors have in recent years served as presidents of the organization, and it has had the honor of having had a member of the royal family as its guest.

Explaining the object of the celebration to the Canadian Press, Alvin F. Macdonald, president of the society, said: "These three fold purposes in holding this event will be to stimulate interest in the life and works of Scott, to encourage the study of Scottish literature and history and to prepare the way for the establishment of an appropriate permanent memorial which will be an enduring symbol of our attachment to the homeland of our race and our veneration for its heroic figures."

In furtherance of its aims the North British recently erected a bronze statue of Robert Burns on one of the main thoroughfares of the city, and hope shortly to become godfather to a troop of Canadian Boy Scouts "with kilts and feather and a sword." Its history since its foundation in 1768 has been inextricably interwoven with the life of Halifax and Nova Scotia. The society is said to be the oldest of its kind in Canada and the only organization in America which has been continuously in existence for 153 years. On the roster are the names of such distinguished figures in British colonial affairs as Earl of Selkirk, Lord Dalhousie, Lord Falkland, General Sir Colin Campbell and many famous generals and admirals. Four chief justices and two lieutenant-governors have in recent years served as presidents of the organization, and it has had the honor of having had a member of the royal family as its guest.

Explaining the object of the celebration to the Canadian Press, Alvin F. Macdonald, president of the society, said: "These three fold purposes in holding this event will be to stimulate interest in the life and works of Scott, to encourage the study of Scottish literature and history and to prepare the way for the establishment of an appropriate permanent memorial which will be an enduring symbol of our attachment to the homeland of our race and our veneration for its heroic figures."

In furtherance of its aims the North British recently erected a bronze statue of Robert Burns on one of the main thoroughfares of the city, and hope shortly to become godfather to a troop of Canadian Boy Scouts "with kilts and feather and a sword." Its history since its foundation in 1768 has been inextricably interwoven with the life of Halifax and Nova Scotia. The society is said to be the oldest of its kind in Canada and the only organization in America which has been continuously in existence for 153 years. On the roster are the names of such distinguished figures in British colonial affairs as Earl of Selkirk, Lord Dalhousie, Lord Falkland, General Sir Colin Campbell and many famous generals and admirals. Four chief justices and two lieutenant-governors have in recent years served as presidents of the organization, and it has had the honor of having had a member of the royal family as its guest.

Explaining the object of the celebration to the Canadian Press, Alvin F. Macdonald, president of the society, said: "These three fold purposes in holding this event will be to stimulate interest in the life and works of Scott, to encourage the study of Scottish literature and history and to prepare the way for the establishment of an appropriate permanent memorial which will be an enduring symbol of our attachment to the homeland of our race and our veneration for its heroic figures."

In furtherance of its aims the North British recently erected a bronze statue of Robert Burns on one of the main thoroughfares of the city, and hope shortly to become godfather to a troop of Canadian Boy Scouts "with kilts and feather and a sword." Its history since its foundation in 1768 has been inextricably interwoven with the life of Halifax and Nova Scotia. The society is said to be the oldest of its kind in Canada and the only organization in America which has been continuously in existence for 153 years. On the roster are the names of such distinguished figures in British colonial affairs as Earl of Selkirk, Lord Dalhousie, Lord Falkland, General Sir Colin Campbell and many famous generals and admirals. Four chief justices and two lieutenant-governors have in recent years served as presidents of the organization, and it has had the honor of having had a member of the royal family as its guest.

mer, tossing the caber, tugs of war, competitions in playing the pipes and dancing the old wild steps of the glorious Highlander, will be some of the ancient contests revived this afternoon. Included in the membership of the North British Society are a good many of the notables of Nova Scotia and these, with distinguished representatives of similar organizations in Halifax and elsewhere, will be honored guests at the festival on Monday. The North British have been at pains to prepare a programme suited to the importance of the occasion. Sir Walter Scott's songs will be sung and his poems recited. Rev. Dr. Clarence Mackinnon, chaplain of the Nova Scotia Highlanders, is to deliver the oration on the man himself. An original poetic tribute has been presented by Rev. A. L. Fraser, pastor of Park street Presbyterian church, Halifax.

Explaining the object of the celebration to the Canadian Press, Alvin F. Macdonald, president of the society, said: "These three fold purposes in holding this event will be to stimulate interest in the life and works of Scott, to encourage the study of Scottish literature and history and to prepare the way for the establishment of an appropriate permanent memorial which will be an enduring symbol of our attachment to the homeland of our race and our veneration for its heroic figures."

In furtherance of its aims the North British recently erected a bronze statue of Robert Burns on one of the main thoroughfares of the city, and hope shortly to become godfather to a troop of Canadian Boy Scouts "with kilts and feather and a sword." Its history since its foundation in 1768 has been inextricably interwoven with the life of Halifax and Nova Scotia. The society is said to be the oldest of its kind in Canada and the only organization in America which has been continuously in existence for 153 years. On the roster are the names of such distinguished figures in British colonial affairs as Earl of Selkirk, Lord Dalhousie, Lord Falkland, General Sir Colin Campbell and many famous generals and admirals. Four chief justices and two lieutenant-governors have in recent years served as presidents of the organization, and it has had the honor of having had a member of the royal family as its guest.

Explaining the object of the celebration to the Canadian Press, Alvin F. Macdonald, president of the society, said: "These three fold purposes in holding this event will be to stimulate interest in the life and works of Scott, to encourage the study of Scottish literature and history and to prepare the way for the establishment of an appropriate permanent memorial which will be an enduring symbol of our attachment to the homeland of our race and our veneration for its heroic figures."

In furtherance of its aims the North British recently erected a bronze statue of Robert Burns on one of the main thoroughfares of the city, and hope shortly to become godfather to a troop of Canadian Boy Scouts "with kilts and feather and a sword." Its history since its foundation in 1768 has been inextricably interwoven with the life of Halifax and Nova Scotia. The society is said to be the oldest of its kind in Canada and the only organization in America which has been continuously in existence for 153 years. On the roster are the names of such distinguished figures in British colonial affairs as Earl of Selkirk, Lord Dalhousie, Lord Falkland, General Sir Colin Campbell and many famous generals and admirals. Four chief justices and two lieutenant-governors have in recent years served as presidents of the organization, and it has had the honor of having had a member of the royal family as its guest.

Explaining the object of the celebration to the Canadian Press, Alvin F. Macdonald, president of the society, said: "These three fold purposes in holding this event will be to stimulate interest in the life and works of Scott, to encourage the study of Scottish literature and history and to prepare the way for the establishment of an appropriate permanent memorial which will be an enduring symbol of our attachment to the homeland of our race and our veneration for its heroic figures."

In furtherance of its aims the North British recently erected a bronze statue of Robert Burns on one of the main thoroughfares of the city, and hope shortly to become godfather to a troop of Canadian Boy Scouts "with kilts and feather and a sword." Its history since its foundation in 1768 has been inextricably interwoven with the life of Halifax and Nova Scotia. The society is said to be the oldest of its kind in Canada and the only organization in America which has been continuously in existence for 153 years. On the roster are the names of such distinguished figures in British colonial affairs as Earl of Selkirk, Lord Dalhousie, Lord Falkland, General Sir Colin Campbell and many famous generals and admirals. Four chief justices and two lieutenant-governors have in recent years served as presidents of the organization, and it has had the honor of having had a member of the royal family as its guest.

Explaining the object of the celebration to the Canadian Press, Alvin F. Macdonald, president of the society, said: "These three fold purposes in holding this event will be to stimulate interest in the life and works of Scott, to encourage the study of Scottish literature and history and to prepare the way for the establishment of an appropriate permanent memorial which will be an enduring symbol of our attachment to the homeland of our race and our veneration for its heroic figures."

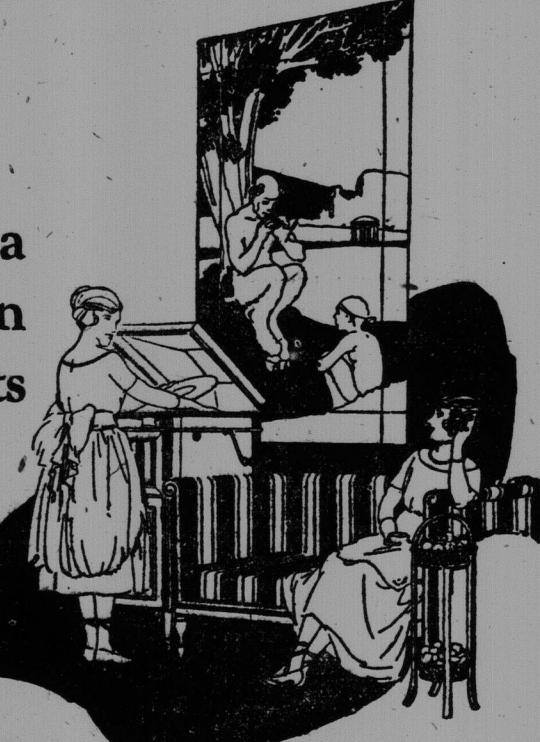

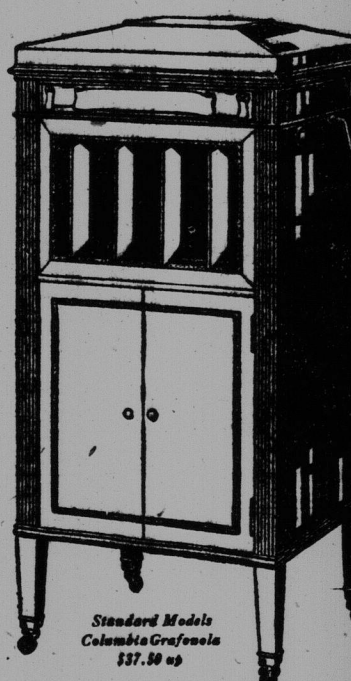

In furtherance of its aims the North British recently erected a bronze statue of Robert Burns on one of the main thoroughfares of the city, and hope shortly to become godfather to a troop of Canadian Boy Scouts "with kilts and feather and a sword." Its history since its foundation in 1768 has been inextricably interwoven with the life of Halifax and Nova Scotia. The society is said to be the oldest of its kind in Canada and the only organization in America which has been continuously in existence for 153 years. On the roster are the names of such distinguished figures in British colonial affairs as Earl of Selkirk, Lord Dalhousie, Lord Falkland, General Sir Colin Campbell and many famous generals and admirals. Four chief justices and two lieutenant-governors have in recent years served as presidents of the organization, and it has had the honor of having had a member of the royal family as its guest.

Explaining the object of the celebration to the Canadian Press, Alvin F. Macdonald, president of the society, said: "These three fold purposes in holding this event will be to stimulate interest in the life and works of Scott, to encourage the study of Scottish literature and history and to prepare the way for the establishment of an appropriate permanent memorial which will be an enduring symbol of our attachment to the homeland of our race and our veneration for its heroic figures."

In furtherance of its aims the North British recently erected a bronze statue of Robert Burns on one of the main thoroughfares of the city, and hope shortly to become godfather to a troop of Canadian Boy Scouts "with kilts and feather and a sword." Its history since its foundation in 1768 has been inextricably interwoven with the life of Halifax and Nova Scotia. The society is said to be the oldest of its kind in Canada and the only organization in America which has been continuously in existence for 153 years. On the roster are the names of such distinguished figures in British colonial affairs as Earl of Selkirk, Lord Dalhousie, Lord Falkland, General Sir Colin Campbell and many famous generals and admirals. Four chief justices and two lieutenant-governors have in recent years served as presidents of the organization, and it has had the honor of having had a member of the royal family as its guest.

Explaining the object of the celebration to the Canadian Press, Alvin F. Macdonald, president of the society, said: "These three fold purposes in holding this event will be to stimulate interest in the life and works of Scott, to encourage the study of Scottish literature and history and to prepare the way for the establishment of an appropriate permanent memorial which will be an enduring symbol of our attachment to the homeland of our race and our veneration for its heroic figures."

Let the Columbia Grafonola entertain your summer guests

NO matter what their mood, nor how hot the weather, the Columbia Grafonola with Columbia records will give your guests music to make each day a delight.

This modern phonograph costs no more than old-fashioned instruments, but its Automatic Von Set Stop silently stops the record at the end of each selection.

Any Columbia dealer will be glad to demonstrate all the improvements that combine to make the Grafonola the modern hostess's right hand or to play over for you the latest Columbia record hits.

Some recordings you should hear:

Peggy O'Neil and The Last Waltz, Melody Waltzes, Prince's Dance Orchestra 46188, $1.65
Ain't We Got Fun? Fox-Trot, Yerkes' Jazzer Orchestra and Not So Long Ago, Fox-Trot, The Happy Six 45429, $1.00
Where the Lazy Mississippi Flows and I Lost My Heart to You, Violin Solos, Sascha Jacobsen 45419, $1.00
Hawaiian Melody and Sweet Luana, Hawaiian Guitar Duets, Ferrera and Franchini 45428, $1.00

Do You Ever Think of Me? Tenor Solo, Fred Hughes and You Made Me Forget How to Cry, Tenor Solo, Charles Harrison 45425, $1.00
Three O'Clock in the Morning and Moonlight, Tenor Solo, Frank Crumit 45431, $1.00
All For You, Fox-Trot, The Happy Six and Sweethearts, Fox-Trot, Yerkes' Jazzer Orchestra 45414, $1.00

COLUMBIA GRAPHOPHONE COMPANY, TORONTO

J. CLARK & SON, Limited

17 GERMAIN STREET

difficult, in the absence of imports from the western provinces, to get feeders to fatten on their bumper corn crop. If our government had placed all the facts before the law-makers at Washington when the U. S. tariff was under consideration, mutual injury might have been avoided. Mr. Lane went to Ottawa to urge that this be done, but his address fell on deaf ears.

POLICEMAN THREW RUNAWAY HORSE
Animal, Dragging the Front Wheels of Buggy, Jeopardized Children's Safety in Montreal.
(Montreal Gazette.)
Jumping at the head of a runaway horse which had bolted across the grass plots of Lafontaine Park, near Parthenais street, at 8.15 o'clock last night, and was in danger of injuring the crowd of persons sitting around, Constable Colangelo of the Rachel street station threw the animal to the ground and was slightly injured on his foot when the wheel of the buggy, from which the animal had broken, passed over his foot. The animal, which had also been injured by the piece of broken axle which it was dragging, was sent to Dr. D. Genereux's establishment, 440 Anherst street, Colangelo, after having the injury dressed by Sergt. Charbonneau, of the Lafontaine Park station, was sent home in a motor side car.

Sergt. Archambault and Constable Colangelo were patrolling the park when a horse, driven by Ernest Nantais of 428 Garnier street, suddenly bolted. After the shafts and front wheels broke from the buggy, leaving the driver in the vehicle. The animal, at the time, was being driven up the short hill at the rear of the Normal school, and, uncontrolled, bolted up the path, and when opposite the small artificial bridge it suddenly swerved and took to the grass towards Parthenais street. There were a large number of persons in the way who barely had time to escape from the animal, which was about to crash into three parked automobiles, containing children, when Colangelo jumped at the animal and brought it down.

BRITANNIC UNDERWRITERS AGENCY
Fire and Automobile Insurance
CAMPBELL & DAVIDSON,
2 Pelissier Street.

REAL ESTATE REAL ESTATE

HOUSES
For Sale or To Let in West St. John and Fairville
Self-contained Houses With Large Lots of Land
Modern Conveniences
IMMEDIATE OCCUPANCY
Purchase Terms—Small cash deposit, and balance in monthly instalments.
THOMAS K. SWEENEY
Barrister at Law
Phone Main 1107 109 Prince Wm. Street

Development of Fisheries
THOSE engaged in the fisheries industries will find that this Bank can render useful service in the expansion of their business, nationally or internationally. The Standard Bank has always been closely identified with the commercial development of Canada's resources. Standard Service is linked with progress.

THE STANDARD BANK OF CANADA
TOTAL ASSETS OVER NINETY MILLIONS

St. John Branch: W. L. Caldwell, Manager.