DOES IT PAY TO BUY IN ADVANCE?

Figures are indisputable; statistics prove that prices on all lines are bound to take a jump before long. These prices are like those of many, many to save, and to Buy for the Future.

WE STILL HAVE A GREAT STOCK

The Great Drive we held recently has not depleted our wonderful stocks to any great degree. By purchasing tremendous quantities of goods our prices are consequently very low. And many back orders are just arriving.
