ANGELIC WOMEN'S AUXILIARY MEETS

The women's auxiliary of the diocese of Fredericton held its usual meeting in Stone church schoolroom yesterday afternoon and there was a very good attendance of members. The president, Mrs. Thomas Walker, was in the chair and the Rev. G. A. Kuhring conducted the opening devotional service and delivered the address. Mr. Kuhring spoke on the book which has been chosen for the mission study for the year, "Jesus Christ and the world's religions," laying stress on the divinity of Christ and of His power to help His people. Reports were read by the recording secretary, Mrs. H. J. Roberts and the corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. W. Foster. Mrs. Foster also read a very interesting letter from Dr. Katherine Travis, formerly of Hampton, who has now spent one year in China as a medical missionary and has been chiefly employed in learning the language while her hospital is active completed.

Mrs. James F. Robertson gave an account of the supplies of literature which had been sent to different lumber camps and which had been most gratefully received. At her suggestion a letter of thanks was extended to R. J. Dible for his assistance in packing and shipping the literature.

The auxiliary co-operating with the Church of England Institute had sent many boxes of Christmas gifts throughout the province and Mrs. John M. Hay for the seniors, Miss Gladys Frink for the girls and Miss Portia Mackenzie for the juniors reported on this work and told of the most appreciative letters of thanks that had been received.

The Leaflet representative list is in charge of Mrs. Charles Coster, who spoke of the need of obtaining more subscribers and also said that the number of thankoffering boxes which had been sent out this year exceeded that of any previous year. Miss Sadler said that her annual report for the Leaflet was now ready for publication and that she had a list of missionaries who wished to become prayer partners with members of the auxiliary.

Miss Margaret Hamilton is the treasurer of the "Extra Cent a Day" fund which forms the pocket money fund of the auxiliary and is used to meet special appeals. At yesterday's meeting two appeals which she had received met with the approval of the auxiliary and were responded to, $57.63 being voted to Dr. Travis' hospital in China and $40 for a micrograph for Caribou.

Mrs. George F. Smith moved and it was unanimously agreed by a standing vote that a message of sympathy should be sent to Mrs. Kev, the president of the St. James' church branch of the auxiliary on the death of her son.

The Stone Church Red Cross held their first meeting of the new year yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Stephen Hall presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. G. Fred Fisher. A tea was held, the refreshments being in charge of Mrs. Perley and Mrs. Ernest Fleming.
