

Were Adgie's Lions Which Killed and Partially Ate Man in Their Cage in Chicago

Noted Woman Animal Trainer Who, With Her Jungle Pets, Was Here at Two St. John Exhibitions—Police Now Are in Charge of Man-killing Beasts

There is more than passing interest in the account of the killing of a man by lions in a cage in Chicago, as told of in last night's despatches, for the lions were those of Mme. Adgie Costello, who has exhibited her jungle pets twice at St. John exhibitions. The lions yesterday killed and partially ate a man who had gone into their cage in a car at Chicago...

Market Square Paving Likely Is Now Off Until Next Year

It is altogether probable that the paving of Market Square will not be undertaken this year and the need for drawing in advance upon next year's assessment may be obviated. The delay is due to any lack of anxiety on the part of the city public works department to get along with the work, but to the amount of time which will be required for the preliminary preparations...

TWO BABY DEER NEW ROCKWOOD ATTRACTIONS

Offer of St. George Bears Declined—Two Woodchuck Added to the List

One of the does in the park has added to the live stock by presenting two little deer. Though but a few days old, they already are very active and fleet of foot. As is always the case when born these are spotted, but latter their coat will take on the reddish color.

HIS FIRST HIGH MASS IN HIS HOME CHURCH

Rev. Wm. McLaughlin at St. Peter's Yesterday—Impressive Ceremony

In St. Peter's church yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock, a former North End boy, Rev. William McLaughlin, celebrated his first high mass in the presence of a very large gathering, and with Rev. Father White, C.S.S.R., of Serangoon, assisting, with Rev. J. H. Borgman, C.S.S.R., deacon; Rev. Simon Grogan, C.S.S.R., sub-deacon; and Rev. Charles McCormick, C.S.S.R., master of ceremonies. The altar was beautifully illuminated and banked in flowers, while floral arches with appropriate inscriptions were erected in the centre aisle of the church.

ST. JOHN MAN IS THE NEW QUEBEC SECRETARY

Herman A. Lordly, Boy Scout Official, Highly Spoken of by Montreal Paper

The Montreal Witness says of a former St. John's schoolmate, Herman A. Lordly, is well known to Montreal Scouts, for he is S.M. of the Y. M. C. A. troop (14th Montreal), which troop, by the way, furnished a very successful and popular band for the Y. M. C. A. at the New Brunswick camp; at the Toronto Y. M. C. A. camp, and for the past two summers at the Montreal Y. M. C. A. camp at Kanawana.

R. A. COURTNEY'S WILL LEAVES ALL TO WIFE

In the probate court today the will of Robert Alexander Courtney, lumber surgeon, was proved. He died in May last in Norfolk, Virginia, but domiciled here. By his will he gives to his wife, Margaret Ann Woods Courtney, all his property, real and personal, to collect and receive the income or dispose of it in whatever way she may deem best during the term of her natural life, and he nominates her as executrix. His will is valued at $100,000; leasehold valued at $8,000, and other personal property at $20,000. His estate is valued at $130,000. His executor is R. A. Courtney.

WOMAN FALLS DOWN TWO FLIGHTS OF STEPS

To fall down two flights of steep and narrow steps in her home in Market street, a distance of about thirty feet, was the misfortune of Mrs. W. H. Ellis, of the fact she was not seriously injured, perhaps fatally, injured is considered by a miracle. She is kept to her bed, however, with a severe scalp wound at the base of the skull and several painful bruises on her back, shoulders and arms.

R. T. HAYES THIRD MAN

His Honor Judge Forbes and James L. Sugrue, members of the board of arbitrators, appointed to deal with the matter of the dispute between the St. John Railway Co. and the local branch of the Associated Railway Employees' Union, regarding the dismissal of Frederick Ramsay, president of the local, today named R. T. Hayes as chairman of the board.

ALONG THE RIVER

Fully two hundred people came down river on the Occome this morning and reached Indiantown a few minutes after eight o'clock. Yesterday was a charming day on the river, and as the sun rose in a clear sky this morning the voyage down was delightful. A gentleman who strove yesterday from Brown's Falls through into Queen's county and return by a circuitous route said that the recent frost not only affected growing vegetables but the leaves of trees, which are discolored and in some cases curled up.
