POLICE INSPECTOR ON STAND

Salem, Mass., Oct. 24—Police Inspector John J. Kelliher of Lawrence, Mass., told the jury trying Ettor, Giovannitti, and Caruso for the murder of Anna Lopizzo yesterday that on the night of January 29 last, the date of the Lopizzo tragedy, he did not draw his revolver and that he did not know of any policeman who fired a shot during the outbreak which resulted in the fatality and the wounding of Policeman Benoit.

Kelliher testified that the police had struggled vainly to clear the streets of the strikers, and that they had been jeered and pelted with ice and other missiles. He said they had resorted to the use of clubs and black jacks to drive back resisting and angry men.

LEAVES MINISTRY AND WILL GO INTO BUSINESS

Former President of Tufts College to Manage a Company

Boston, Oct. 24—Rev. Dr. Frederick W. Hamilton, former president of Tufts College, has resigned from the pulpit of the North Cambridge Universalist church, and will leave the ministry for good at the end of this month for he is going into business in Boston. He will become business manager of a forestry company.

"The offer to enter business was such a good one I thought it foolish to refuse it," said he. "I have really been out of the active ministry, as a pastor, for six years, or ever since I became president of Tufts. Had I remained in the active pastorate I probably should have felt different about it. I shall not preach again, as I believe business and the pulpit should be kept entirely separate.

"A business man should keep out of the pulpit. A pastor should keep out of business. I do not look down on the pulpit as a profession by any means. I am glad that I spent a good part of my life in the pulpit. I would never advise a young man not to enter the ministry if he thought he was called to enter it. But if a man thinks he has finished with the work of a minister, I think he should enter business if a good field presents itself.

Gibson Indicted for Murder

Goshen, N. Y., Oct. 24—Attorney Burton W. Gibson was indicted for murder in the first degree for the death of Countess Rosa Menschil Szabo, in July last. The Orange county grand jury, which has been investigating the case, handed up the indictment and Gibson will probably be tried before Judge A. S. Thompson in Newburgh at the December term of court.

MARKET REFORM.

Commissioner McLellan paid a visit to the country market this morning and outlined a few changes which he desires to bring into effect there. One of these is that barrels containing produce must not impede the aisles, but must be kept beneath the counters and not protrude into the passageway.

ST. JOHN LADIES' HELP

The members of the Congregational church held a very enjoyable social in the schoolroom last evening. C. E. Macmichael presided, and an excellent programme of songs and recitations was given by the children of the Sunday school. During the evening it was announced that the Women's Auxiliary of the Congregational Missionary Society had raised the sum of $30 for the purpose of assisting in rebuilding the missionary church in Chiaamba, Africa, which was destroyed by fire a short time ago. The amount has been forwarded to Africa, and the ladies have received great praise for their effort.

HALIFAX WANTS SHIPYARDS

The steel shipbuilding committee of the Halifax board of trade and city council met yesterday morning at the Board of Trade rooms, Mayor Bligh presiding. The contents of two letters were discussed. One was that from a large steel shipbuilding firm in England, reviewing the whole situation, and advocating the placing of a small steel shipyard capable of building ships up to 4,000 to 6,000 tons, and asking that the act enabling bonuses to be given by the government and municipality be changed so as to eliminate the conditions under which a marine engine plant has to be operated in connection with the shipyard. This letter is from the head of a firm—a practical letter from a practical man, and his firm will be written to asking for a proposition to be put in more definite form.

TO ARBITRATE.

The difficulty regarding one of the men employed on one of the dredges at work in the harbor will be submitted to arbitration this afternoon. The trouble arose from the dismissal of one man and this is the only point to be arbitrated. It is understood there were some other matters in dispute between the men and the dredge owners but these have been adjusted. There has been some talk of a strike but this is declared entirely without foundation, as the rules of the union prohibit strikes unless the matter has first been submitted to arbitration. The arbitrators to meet this afternoon include a representative of the men and of the company and a third mutually agreed upon, W. Frank Hatheway.

TRIAL OF SCHRANK TO BE DELAYED SIX WEEKS

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 24—District Attorney W. C. Zabel, who is believed to be the only Socialist state attorney in the country, gave three specific reasons for deferring the trial of John Schrank, who shot Colonel Roosevelt, till the December sitting of the criminal court. He said, first, that it was only reasonable to await the results of the colonel's injury; second, he had no desire to hurry the defendant, and, third, he thought it would be unwise to call the case before the presidential campaign was quite over. Mr. Zabel has sent an agent to Buffalo to get the record of the trial of Czolgosz when he was convicted of the murder of President McKinley. He thinks it will aid him when John Schrank, Roosevelt's assailant, is placed on trial. The two trials will differ owing to changes in procecure, as required by varying state laws and the seriousness of the offense.

W. C. ZABEL

Miss Annie Maud Magee, of Kingston, N. S., and Harry Havelock Morehouse, of Kilburn, N. B., were united in marriage on the evening of October 19 in the parsonage of the First Methodist church, Charlottetown, by Rev. J. Heaney, B.A.
