ALMOST BLIND, GIRL'S SIGHT IS RESTORED AT SHRINE OF STE. ANNE

Loretta McMahon Regains Vision While Kneeling in Prayer Before Picture of Saint

Montreal, Sept. 3.—After sixteen years of almost total blindness, Miss Loretta McMahon of Thorold, Ont., was completely and permanently cured, while on a pilgrimage to the sacred shrine of Ste. Anne De Beausse. She has been unable to recognize friends and relatives without the aid of exceedingly strong glasses, and could read newspapers with only the greatest difficulty.

On Thursday morning, she was kneeling before a blessed picture of Ste. Anne and fervently praying, when suddenly her vision cleared and she could distinguish not only the picture in its entirety, but the faces of those about her. Repeating, she rose to her feet, and found that she could see as well as anyone in the church, where, before, even with her glasses, it was impossible for her to read a prayer book, she could read the smallest print, while on her return to Montreal she read, for the first time in sixteen years, without glasses, her first written letter. She can now read any kind of print without the aid of glasses.

BASEBALL CASE OF INTEREST GETS INTO POLICE COURT

Marathon's Manager Takes Action Against Steve White — Ball-players on Stand

A case that attracted considerable attention, both among the ball players now in the city and others, came up for hearing in the police court this morning when Steve White, a former Princeton University pitcher, who has been pitching this season for the Marshalls, was called upon to answer to the charge of assaulting manager David B. Donald, of the Marathon club. The assault was alleged to have taken place during the progress of the game here on Saturday between the Marshalls and the Fredonian nine. White started in to pitch for the home team but was taken out of the box in the first inning and was replaced by Jordan.

Manager Donald says that soon after White came in to the players' bench he was asked to run for George Winter but refused, saying that he had a sore leg, and that Donald then informed him that the pitcher with a sore arm and a sore leg was no good to the Marshalls. He then says that White made a remark to him for which he fined him $20. White, he says then made a rush at him and struck him twice in the head. He did not say anything more about the matter then, but reported White to the police for assault.

Nearly all of the Fredonian ball players as well as members of the Marathon club were in court to hear the testimony this morning. D. B. Donald and Charles T. Nevins gave evidence for the prosecution. R. M. Rive appeared for Mr. Donald.

Donald's evidence was stated, and was corroborated by Mr. Nevins.

For the defence White denied having struck him. He admitted rushing at him, but says he did not strike him. He said that the manager had made him angry, and had been continually nagging at him, saying that he was stalling. According to his contract he was not liable to any fine. He admitted catching hold of Donald by the chin and saying, "if you keep that money out of my eye I will make you regret it." The defence produced a letter in court signed by Inches & Hazen offering to settle the case for $100. The letter stated that by his actions at the Marathon management would not be liable for his salary, which amounted to $115. O'Brien, the third baseman, gave evidence, and also said that White did not strike Donald. He said he saw White at the manager's, but was positive that there were no blows struck. He knew that White had a sore leg, he having injured it while playing in Houston. He had heard the conversation between White and Donald.

Doc. White, the next witness, did not see the beginning of the incident, but told the police what he had seen. He said he saw White and Donald talking and that he would not stand for the $20 fine.

White pleaded guilty of a technical assault, but denied striking Donald. His Honor therefore fined him $20 for the assault, and allowed him to go on the payment of $10.

C. P. R. ORDERS MORE CARS

To Spend $1,200,000 in Hamilton for Freight Work

(Canadian Press)

Montreal, Sept. 3.—It is announced that the Canadian Pacific Railway has placed another order for 1,500 new box cars with the National Steel Car Company of Hamilton, the cars to be ready for delivery in the early part of the year. This order represents an outlay of well over a million dollars and is for new rolling stock in addition to the output of the Angus shops.

The C. P. R. is in fact, increasing its freight carrying capacity so as to be in a position to meet the constantly growing demands for moving the western grain crop. These 1,500 cars will be rushed to completion as they are badly needed. Approximately the cost of a box car is $800 and the expenditure will be about $1,200,000.

The National Steel Car Company is enlarging its works. Foundations are in place, and twenty-eight car loads of steel are waiting to be erected.

THE POLICE COURT

Seven prisoners were gathered in by the police since Saturday, and they were all arraigned in the police court this morning. Isaac Anderson, a seaman, charged with assaulting Frederick Walton, mate on the schooner "The Star," was remanded. The captain of the schooner, which is lying at Long Wharf, was in court and told the judge that the prisoner was a very troublesome member of his crew.

Charles London, charged with lying and lurking on James E. Quinn's premises on the Westmorland Road, was also remanded. Mr. Quinn told of seeing London and two other men sitting in his field on Sunday afternoon drinking, and of later finding London and a woman in his garden. He ordered them out but they did not go. He then summoned County Policeman Armstrong and had London arrested.

George Hanley, charged with assaulting William Connell in Lombard street, in view of the police, pleaded guilty and was fined $20 or two months in jail. He said that he did not mean to assault Connell, but Detective Kilien told of seeing Hanley strike Connell twice, knocking him out for a time.

Two prisoners charged with drunkenness were fined $8 or two months in jail and one $8 or thirty days in jail. One other prisoner cleared with drunkenness was remanded.

Michael Doherty, an old man, reported by J. C. R. Policeman Scott Smith for trespassing on the I. C. R. property at the foot of Dorchester street and picking up coal there, pleaded guilty but said that he did not think there was any harm in doing what he did. He was fined $20, but the fine was allowed to stand on condition that he would not repeat the offence.
